In the universe of the mobian empire,
there lives the most fastest creature to man kind, Sonic the Hedgehog!

Starring in: The Eggman Cartel!

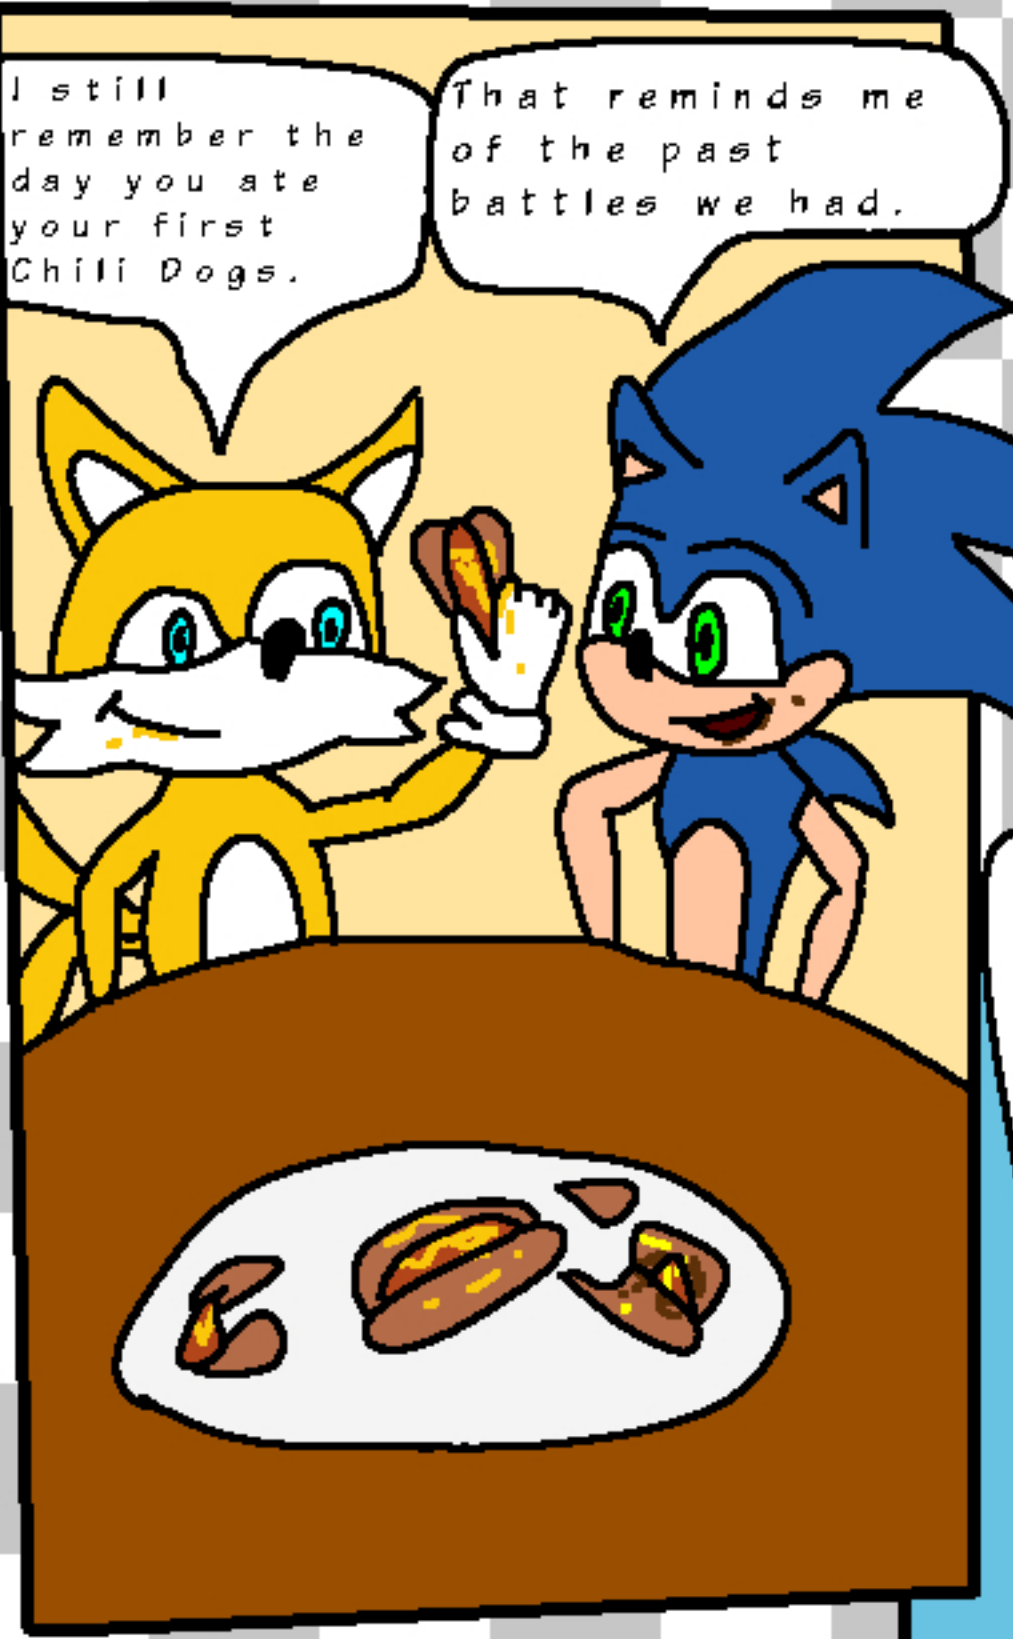

#1

Alright, dinner is ready! Dig in!

Cheese Dogs!

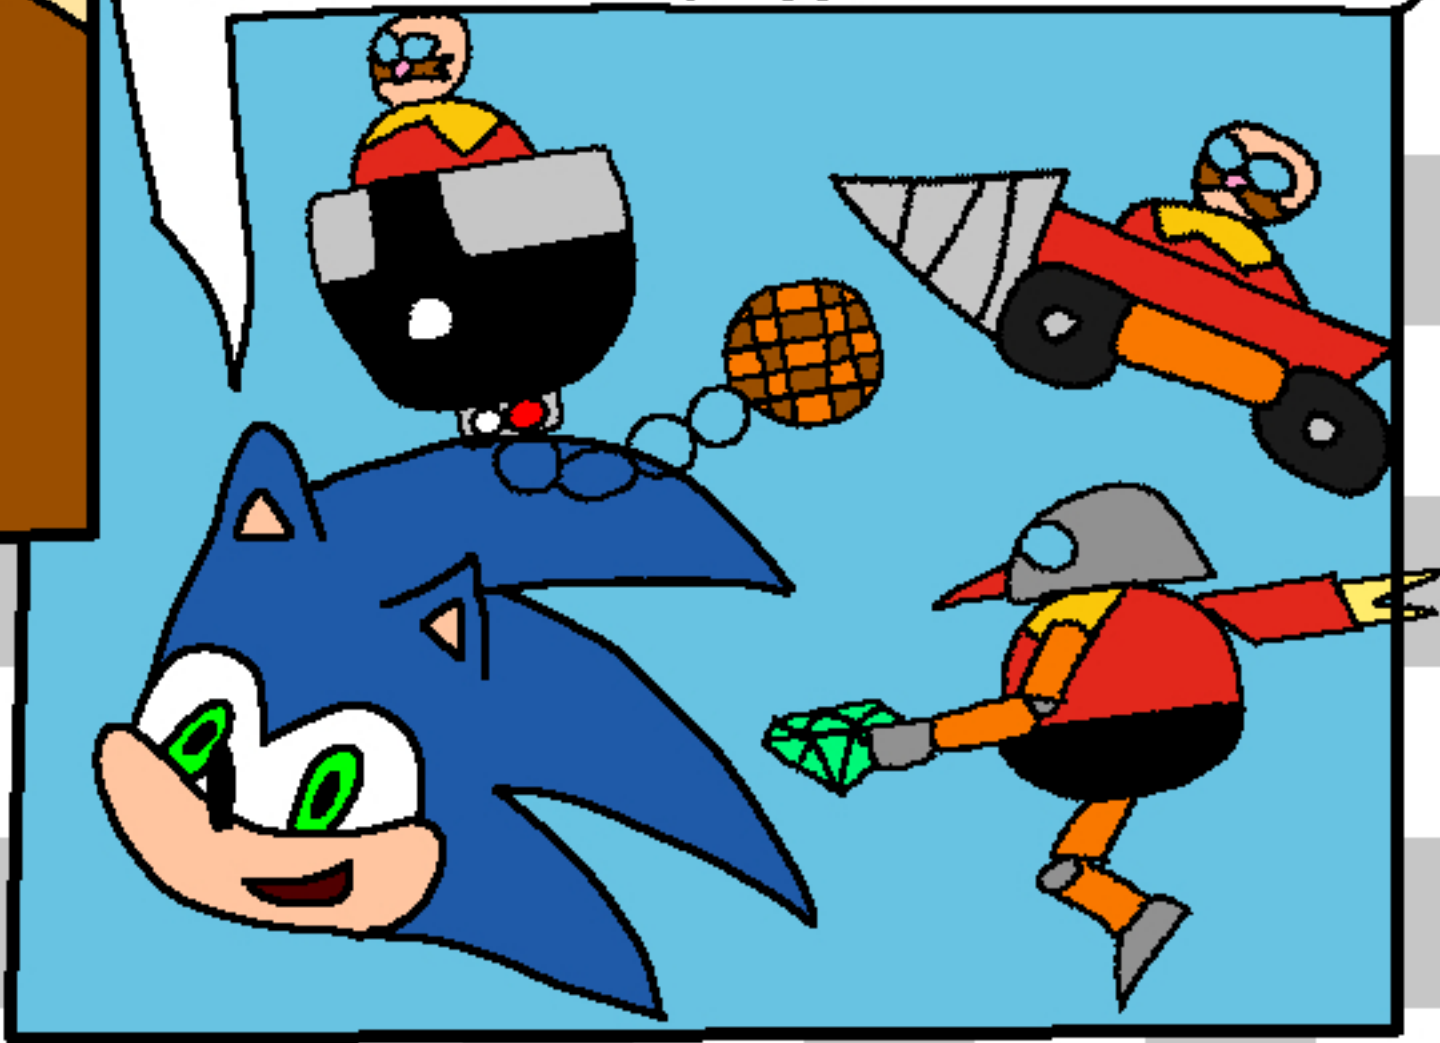

Alright my man! Amy sure knows my rad of tase!

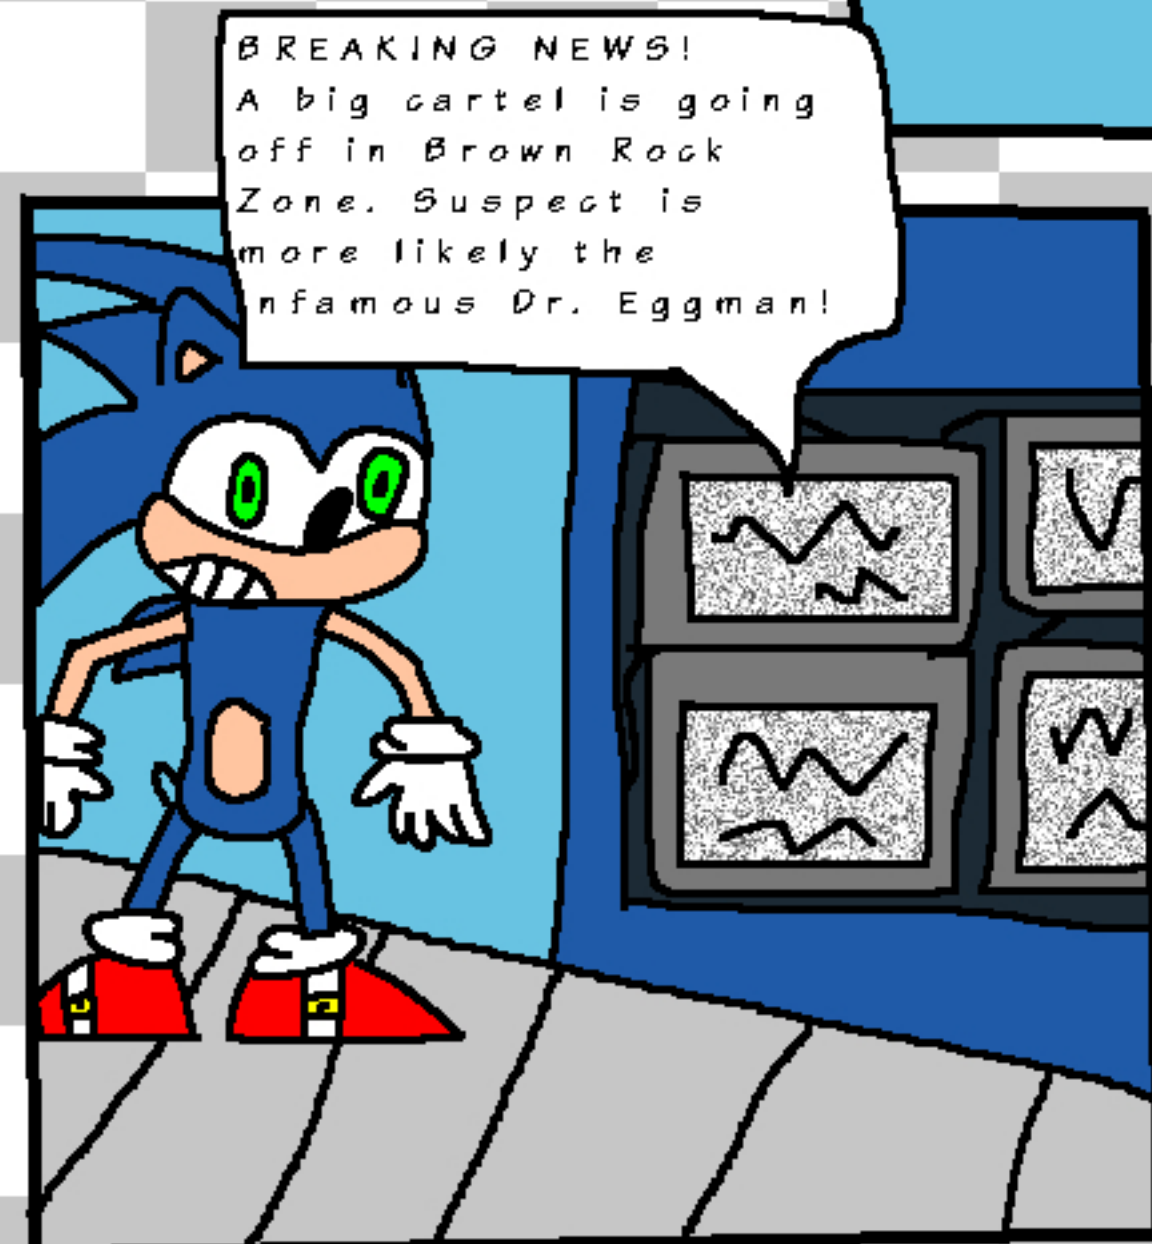

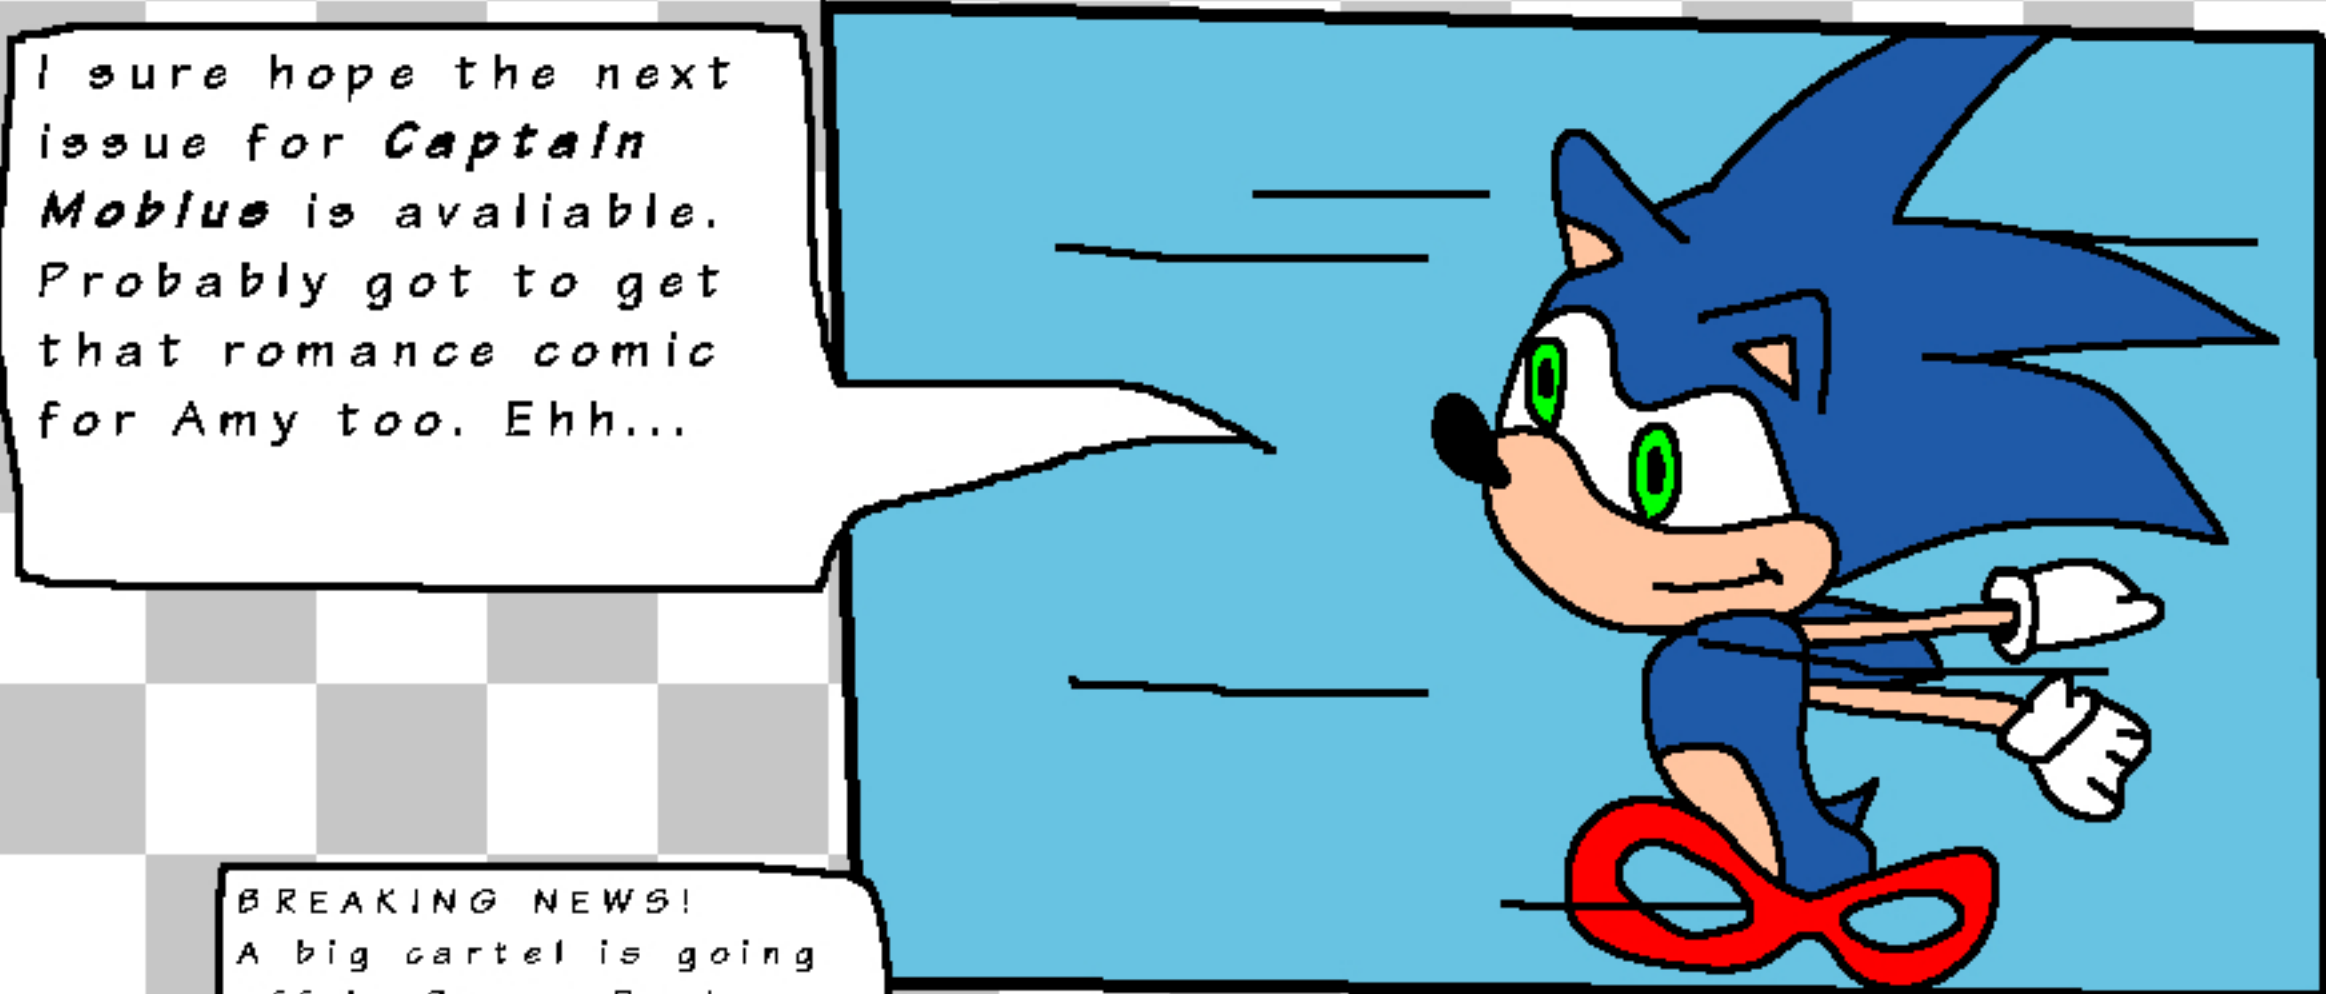

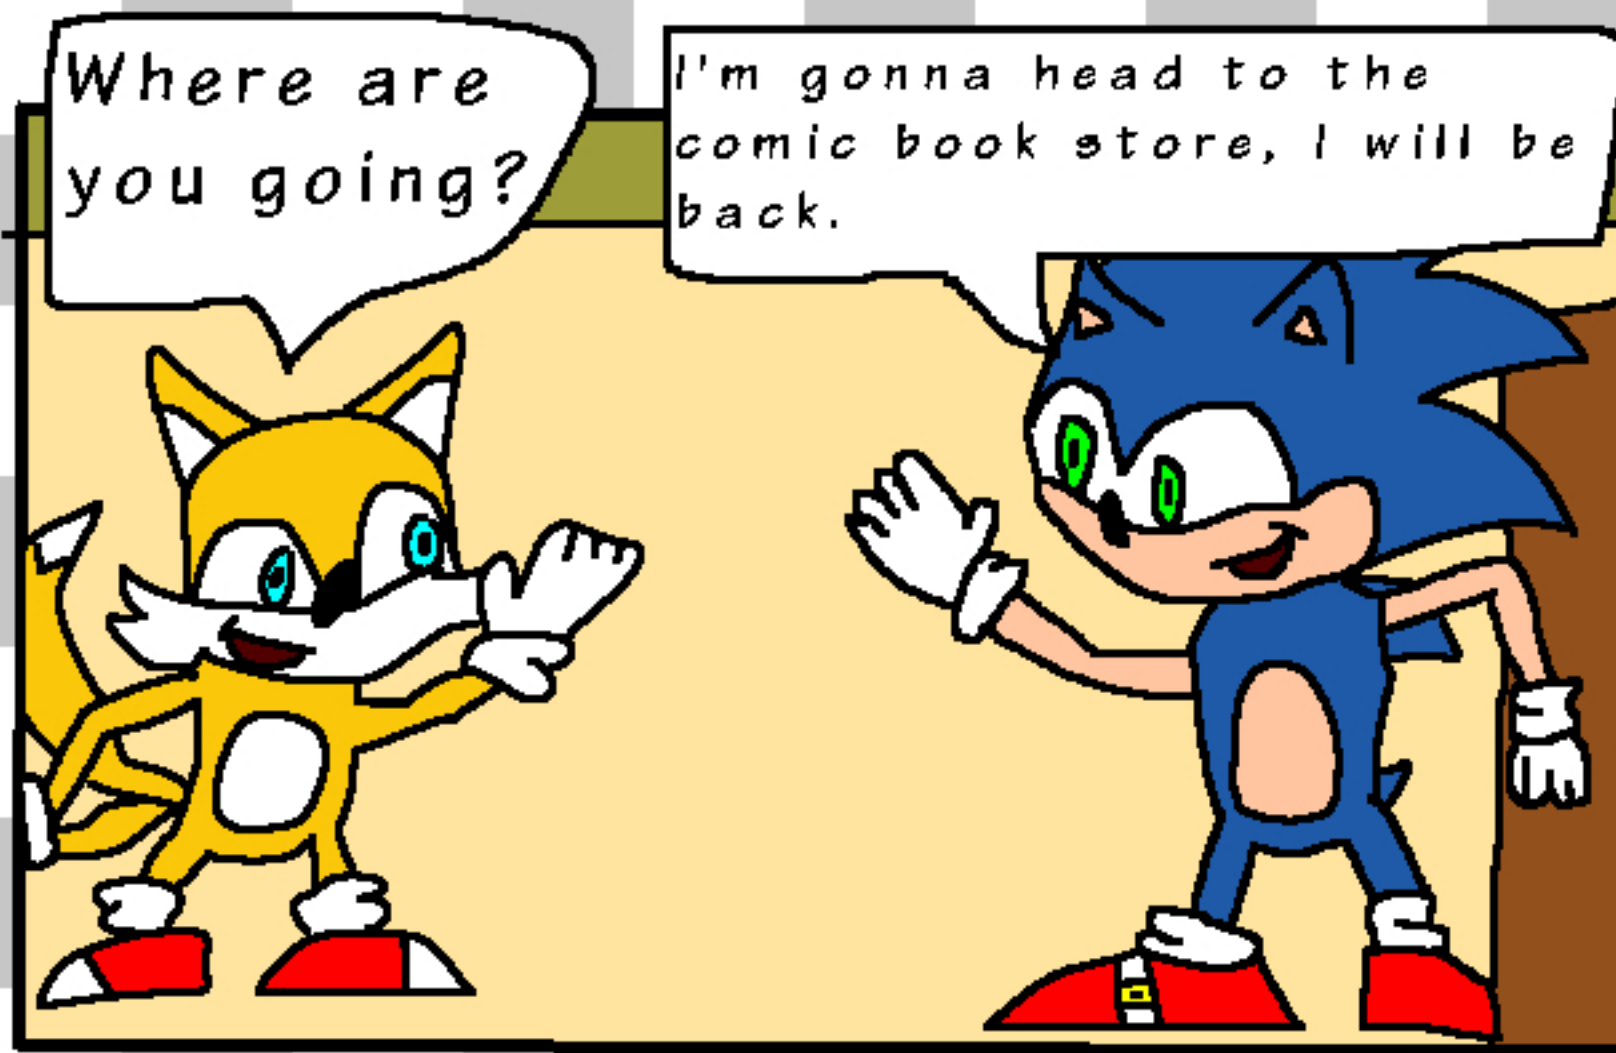

I still remember the day you ate your first Chili Dogs.

That reminds me of the past battles we had.

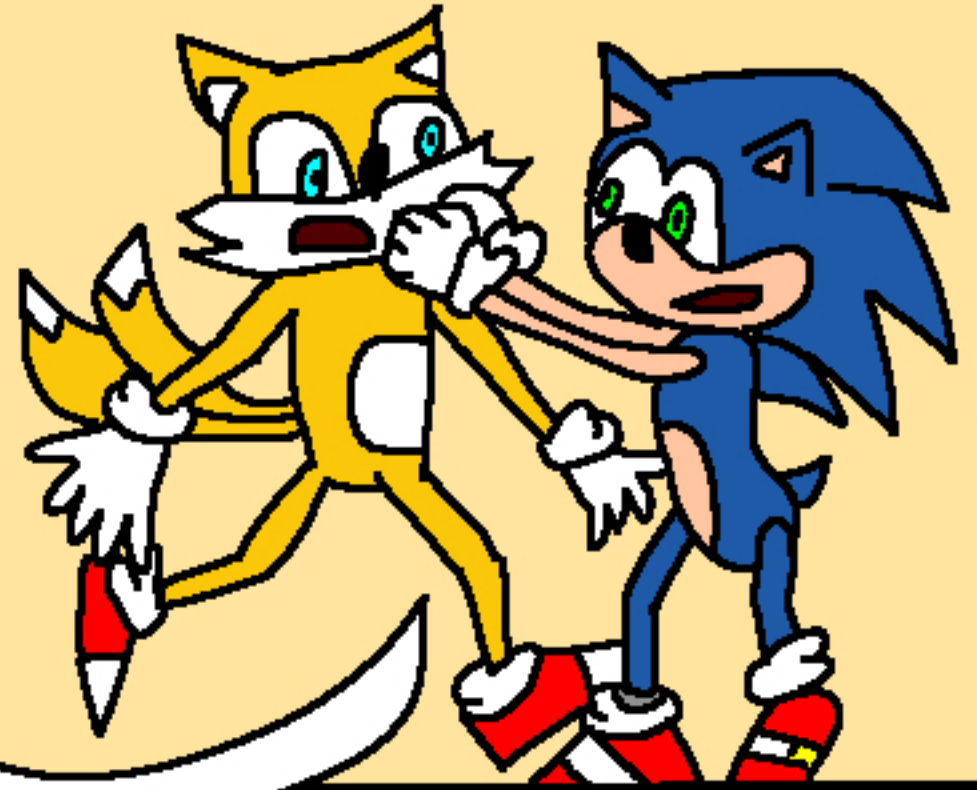

Oh yes, Eggman was a big bag of scrambled rotten eggs. We would always have a great meal after our efforts to destroy eggman.

BAM!

Tails! I just almost went into the comic book store but I saw on tv news that Eggman is back! Apparently some type of cartel is going on in Brown Rock Zone, this is urgent!

Don't worry, I just know what to do. We're gonna head to that island!

Good thing I have my plane still intact. I was gonna scrap it for parts for a newer model, but we're gonna do what we have!

This looks like it's it. Only took several miles to get there.

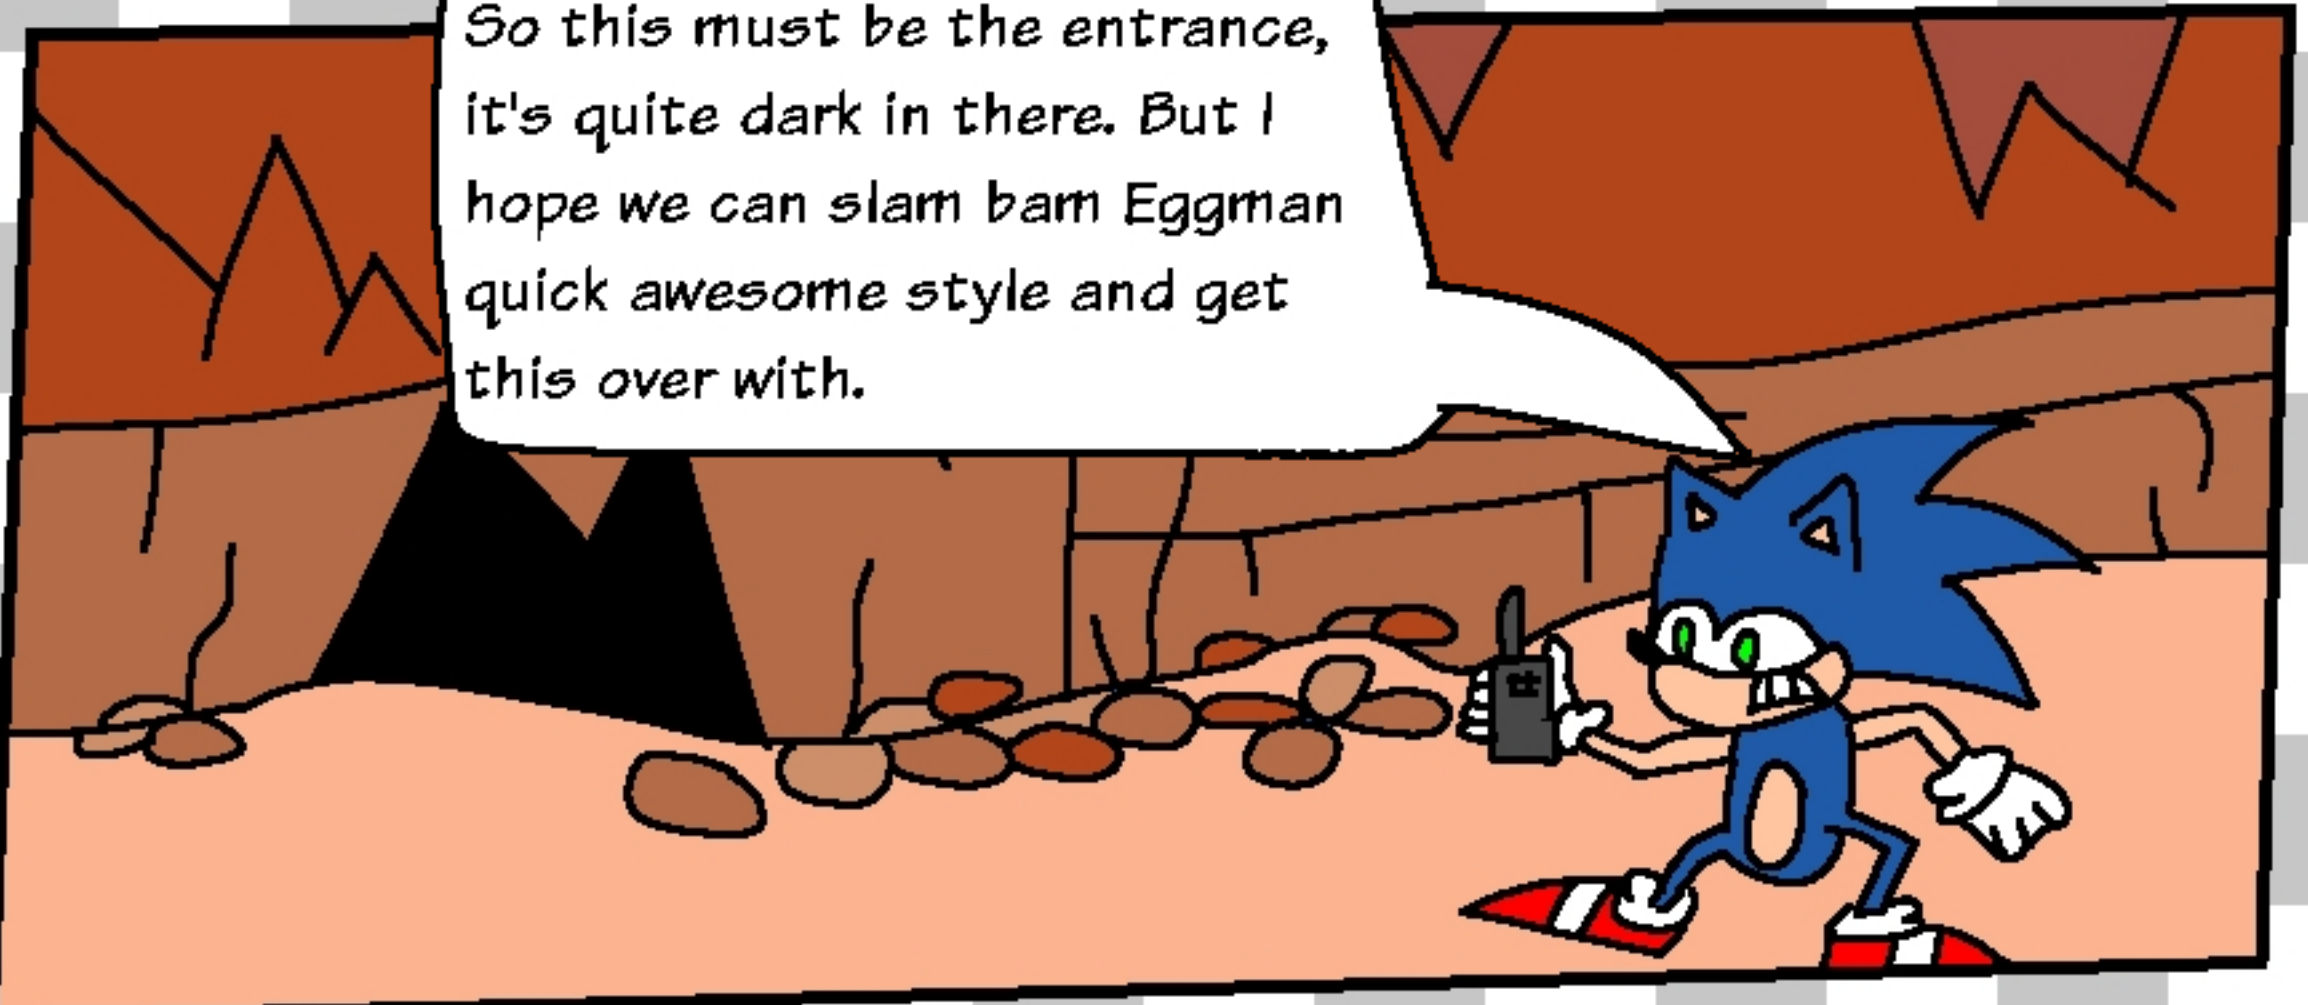

Alright Sonic, I'm gonna give you this walkie talkie. Your gonna jump off the plane and enter the cave entrance down there at the island. Eggman should be somewhere down those caves. The cartel is probably there as well.

So this must be the entrance, it's quite dark in there. But I hope we can slam bam Eggman quick awesome style and get this over with.

Jeeze, to many badniks, Tails. I got to slip around all these corners to avoid any danger.

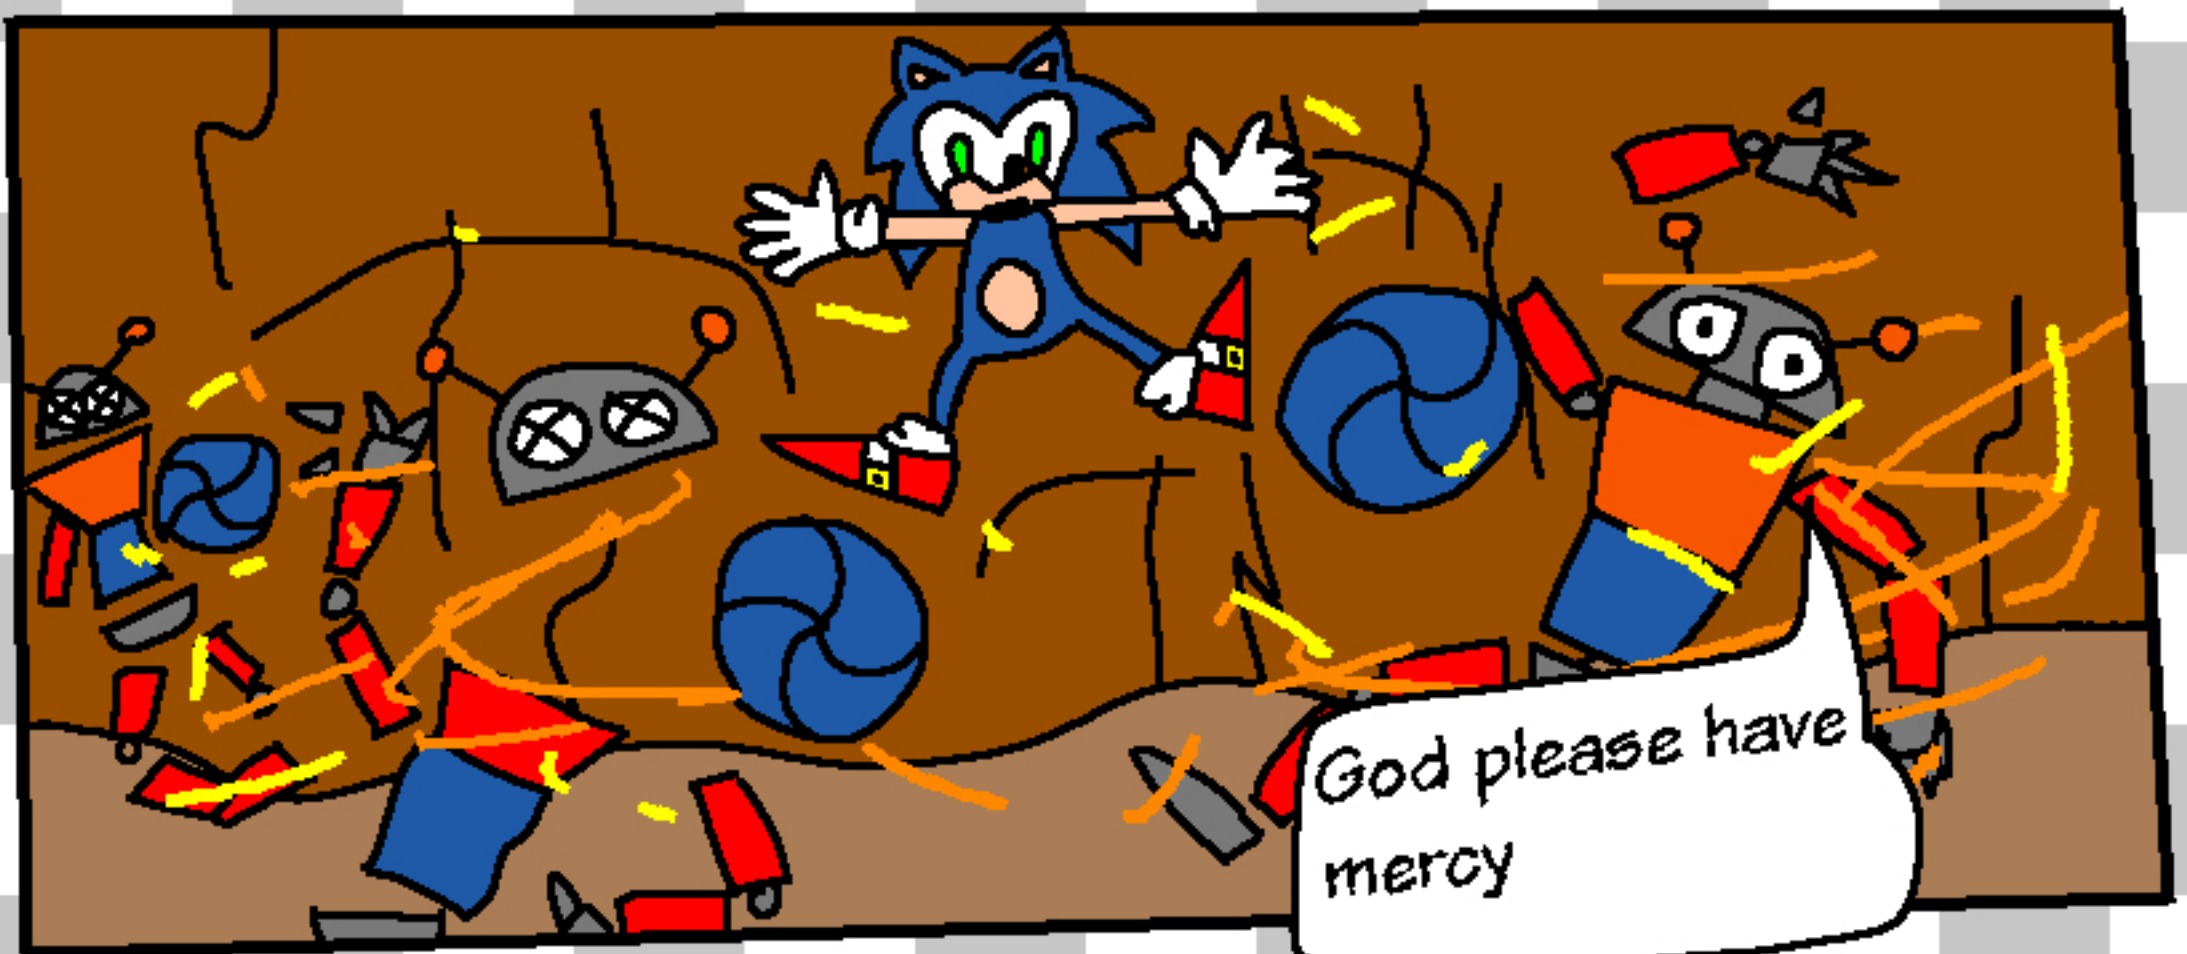

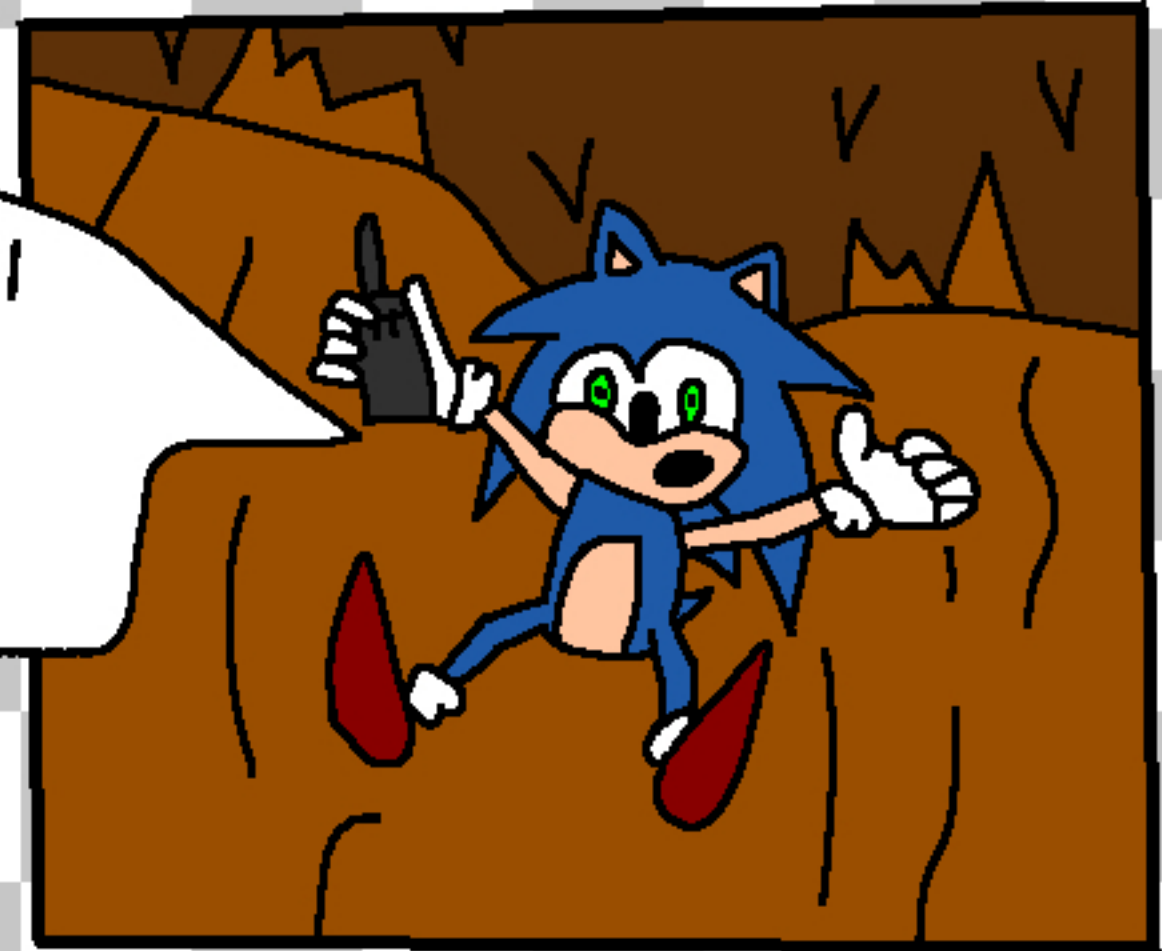

Ah ha! I am at the scene right now Tails. So there is a whole cartel going on.

There is no sign of Eggman, I'm gonna have to destroy them as they may be in my way.

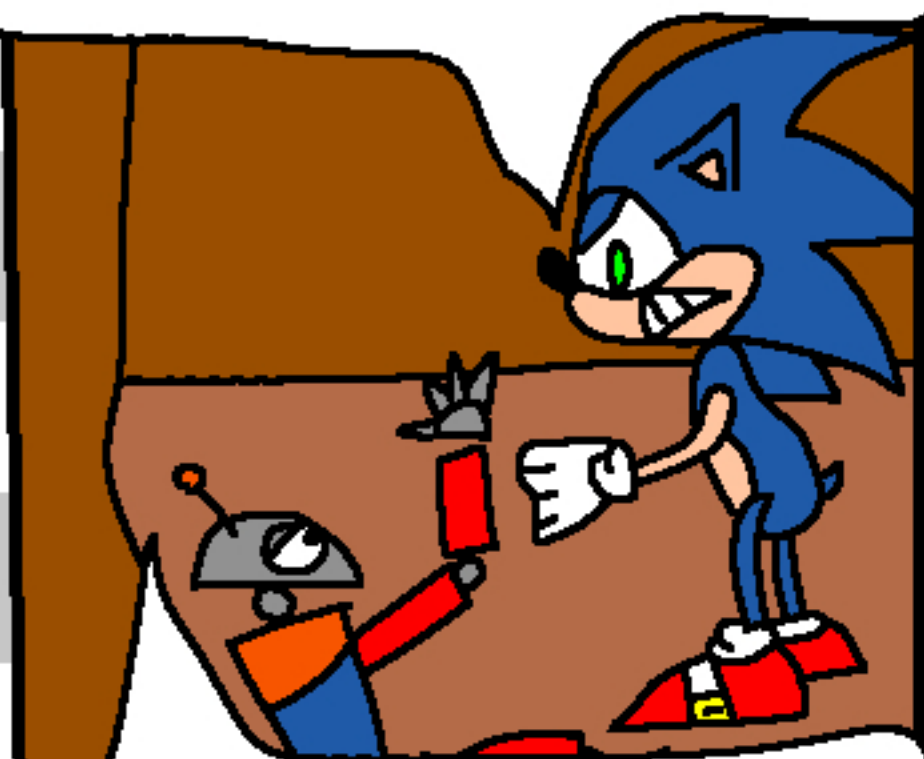

Hold on all you criminal scum!
I'm coming down.!

God please have mercy

Alright you bolt head, where is Eggman, what is he trying to do?

Idk man... or rat... or- look, the layer is located in one of those tunnels. I think the barrel contain some type of yellow substance.

Yellow? I can't ever think of anything that's dangerous like that color. Hope it's not radioactive piss.

I don't even know what he is actually planning. Just go look.

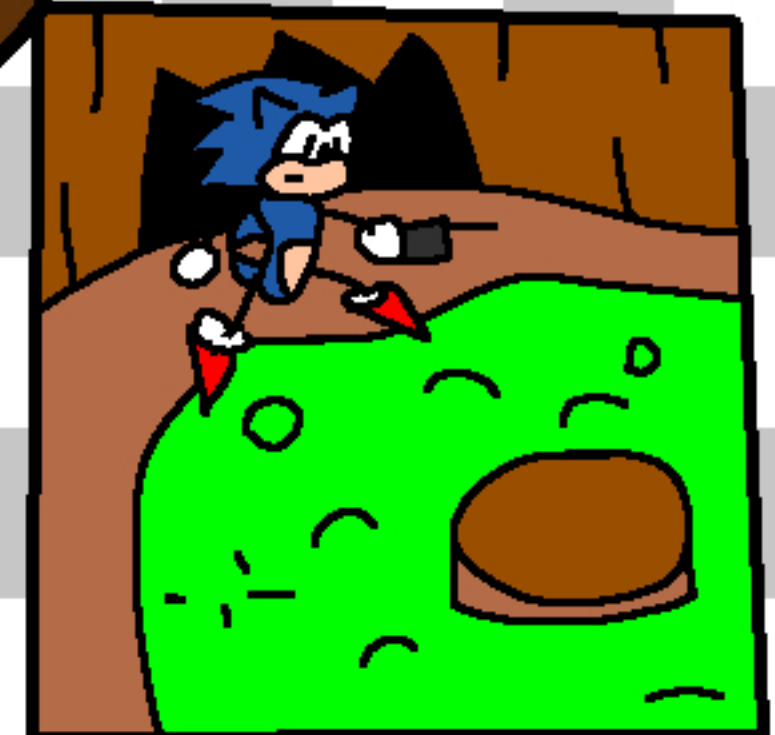

Tails, apparently the barrels may contain some yellow liquid

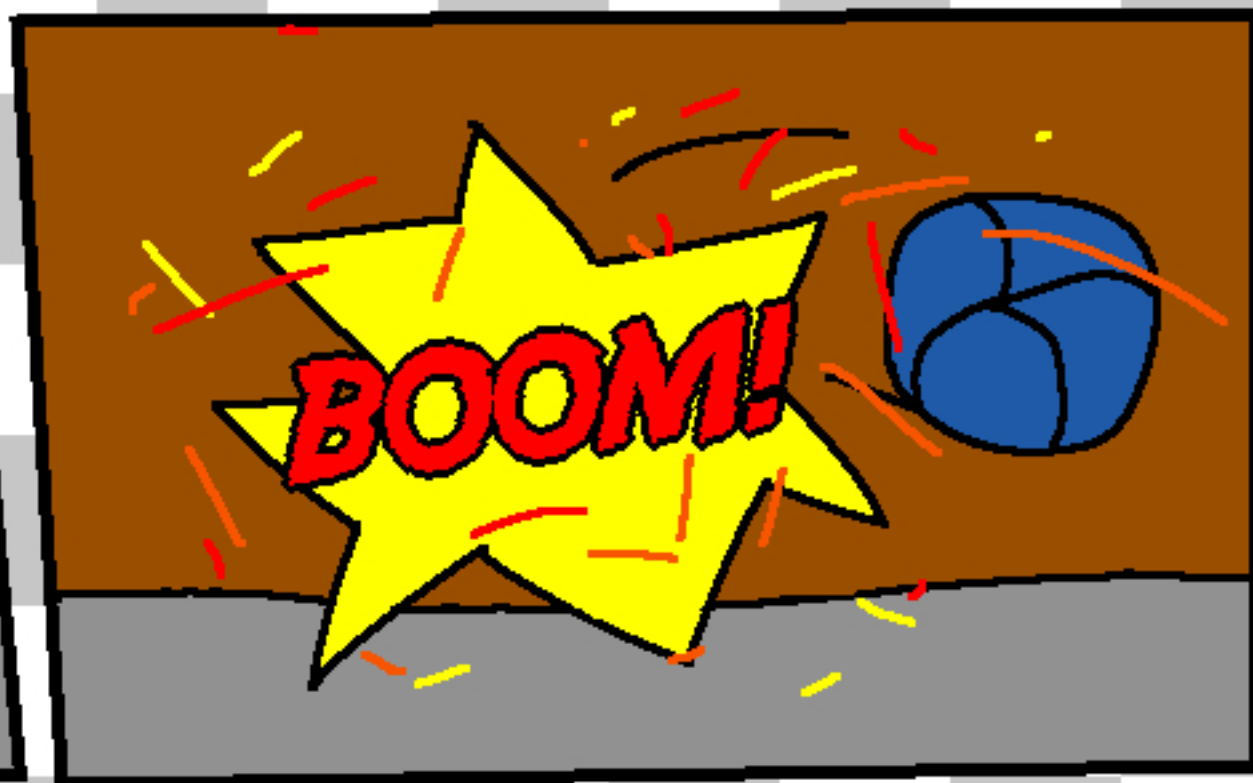

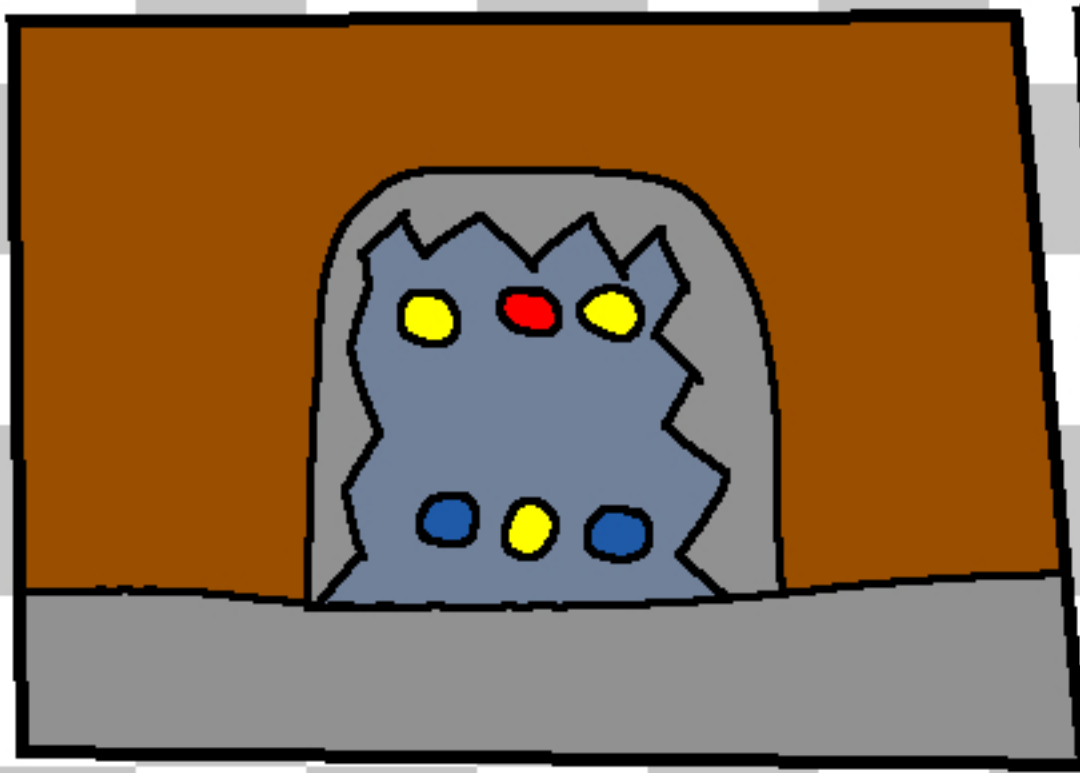

That sounds intriguing, we won't ever know for sure on what Eggman is planning but he is always under our noses. Just keep looking for him.

The blue blur then navigates through the maze of tunnels through out the cave. Leading to death traps and toxic waste, spikes and more!

Dr Eggman's Layer

Hah, Sonic at last your here! I was waiting for you.

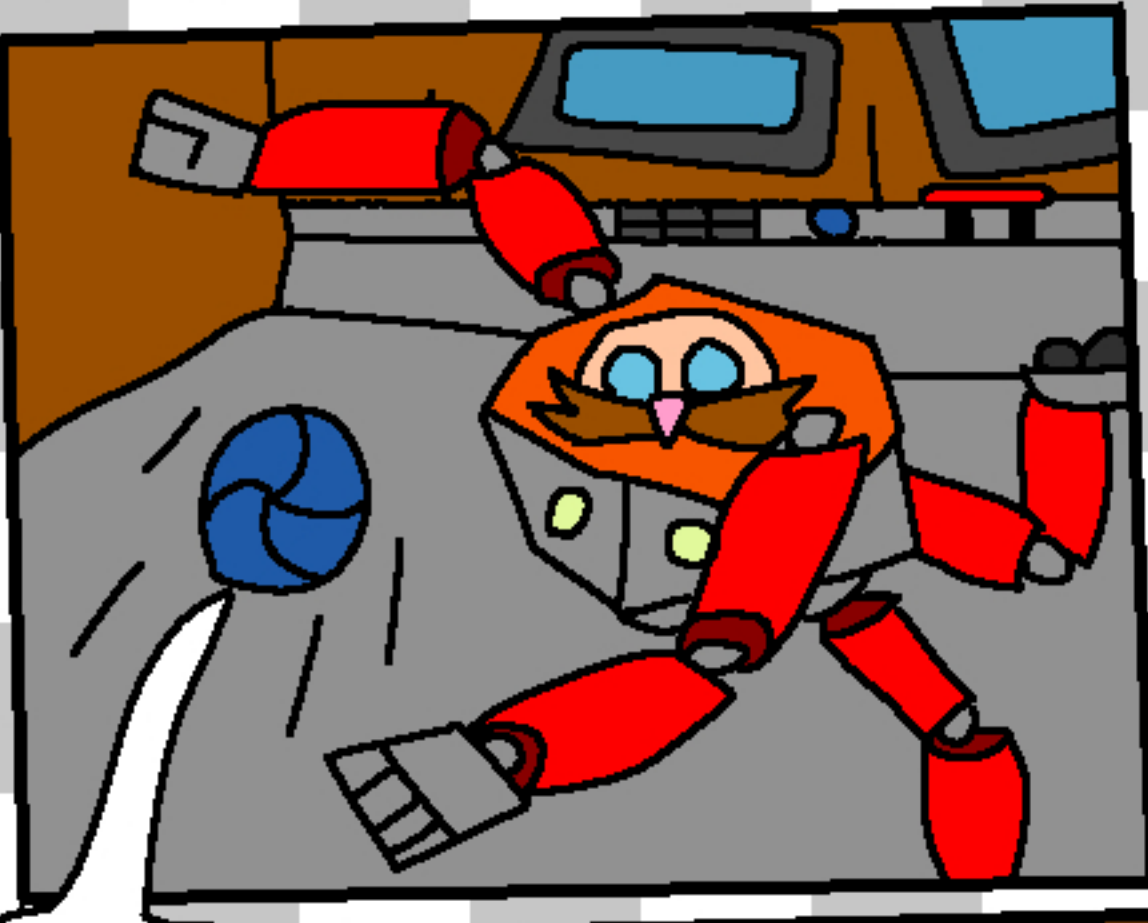

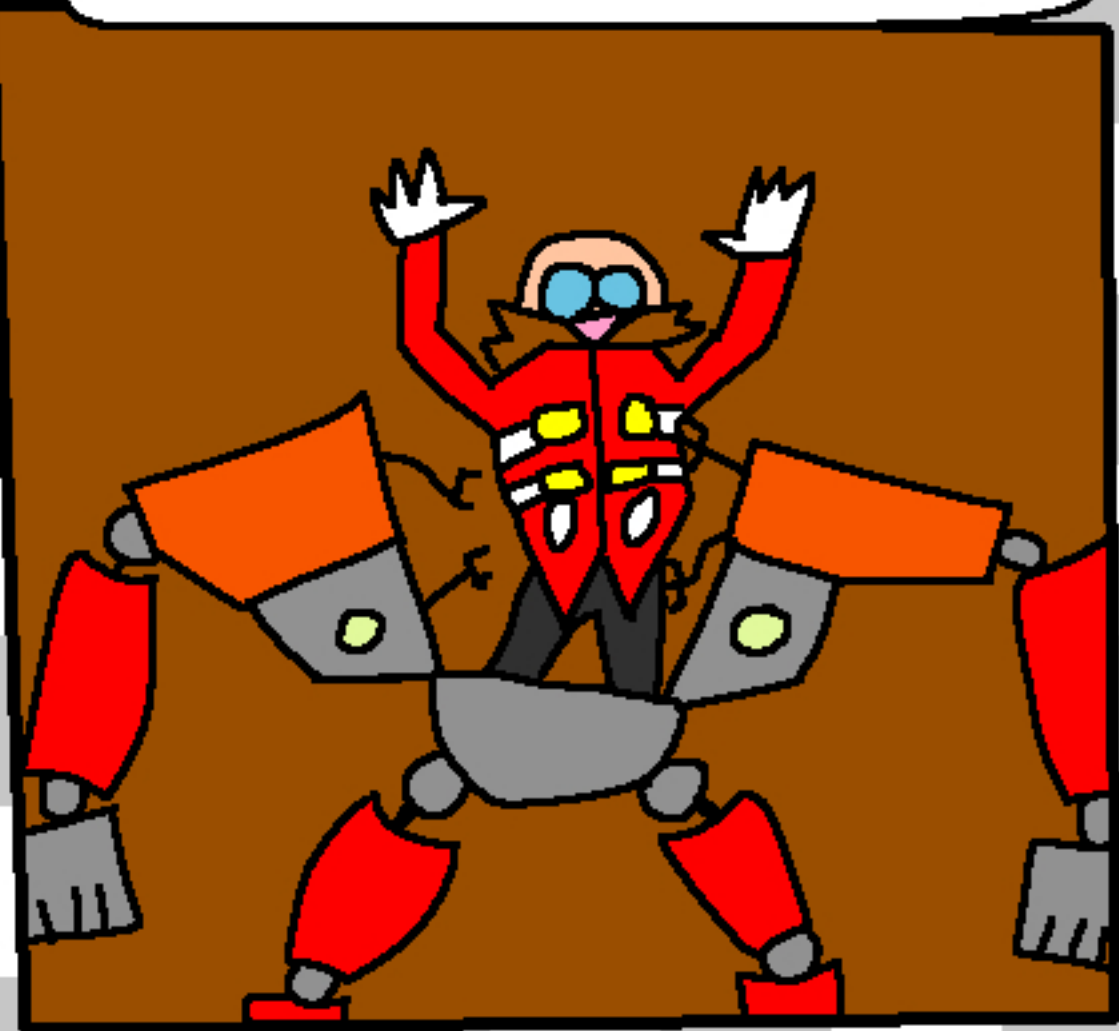

I knew you would be coming, that's why I made it easy for the news to cover it at the comic store. I know that's your favorite tidy place!

Oh so your gonna make it easy for us to find you now on purpose? Well games over because your not gonna try and pull your fancy moves anymore.

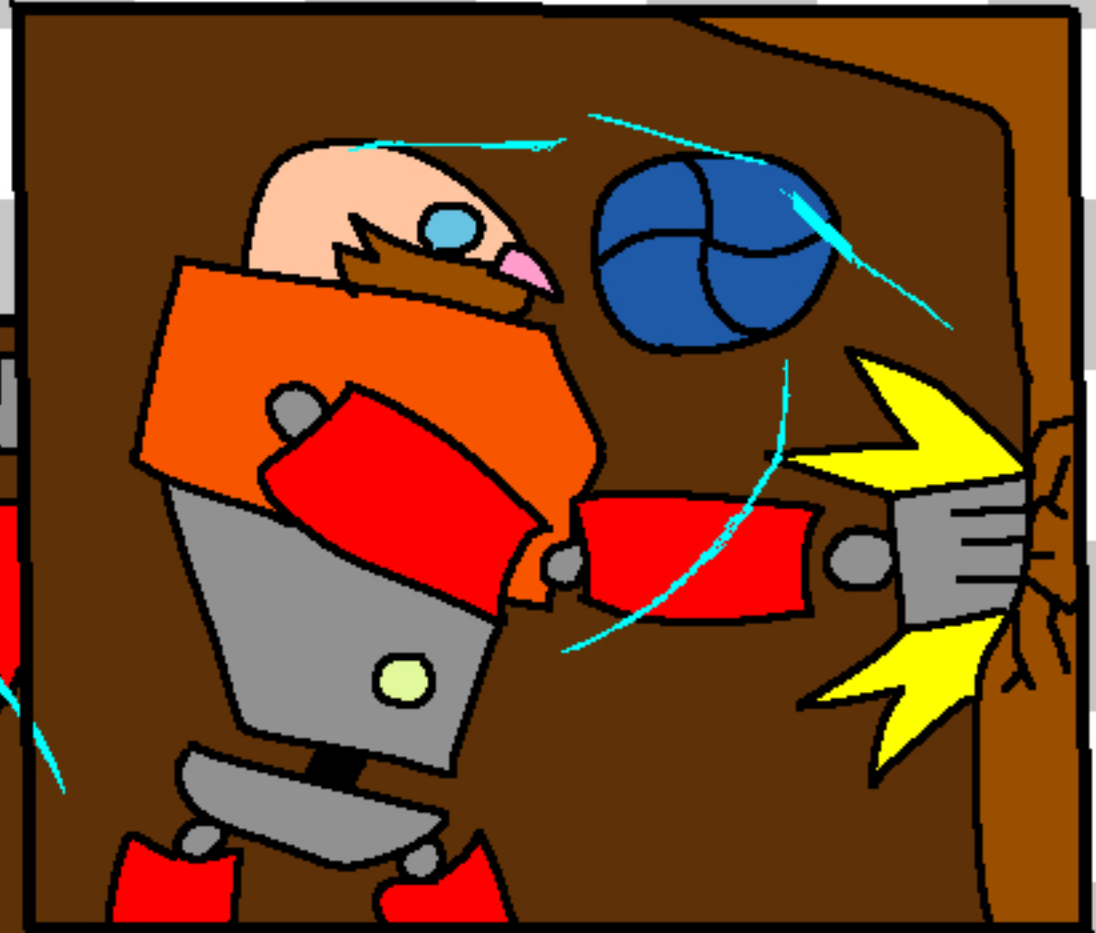

And now, I will activate my mech suit! This time I will defeat you Sonic. You will meet your misery. I aint' going to have this cartel system go to waste

Now prepare for my new invention! The fist smasher 30-0.

Ha, try to smash me. I know I'm gonna win!

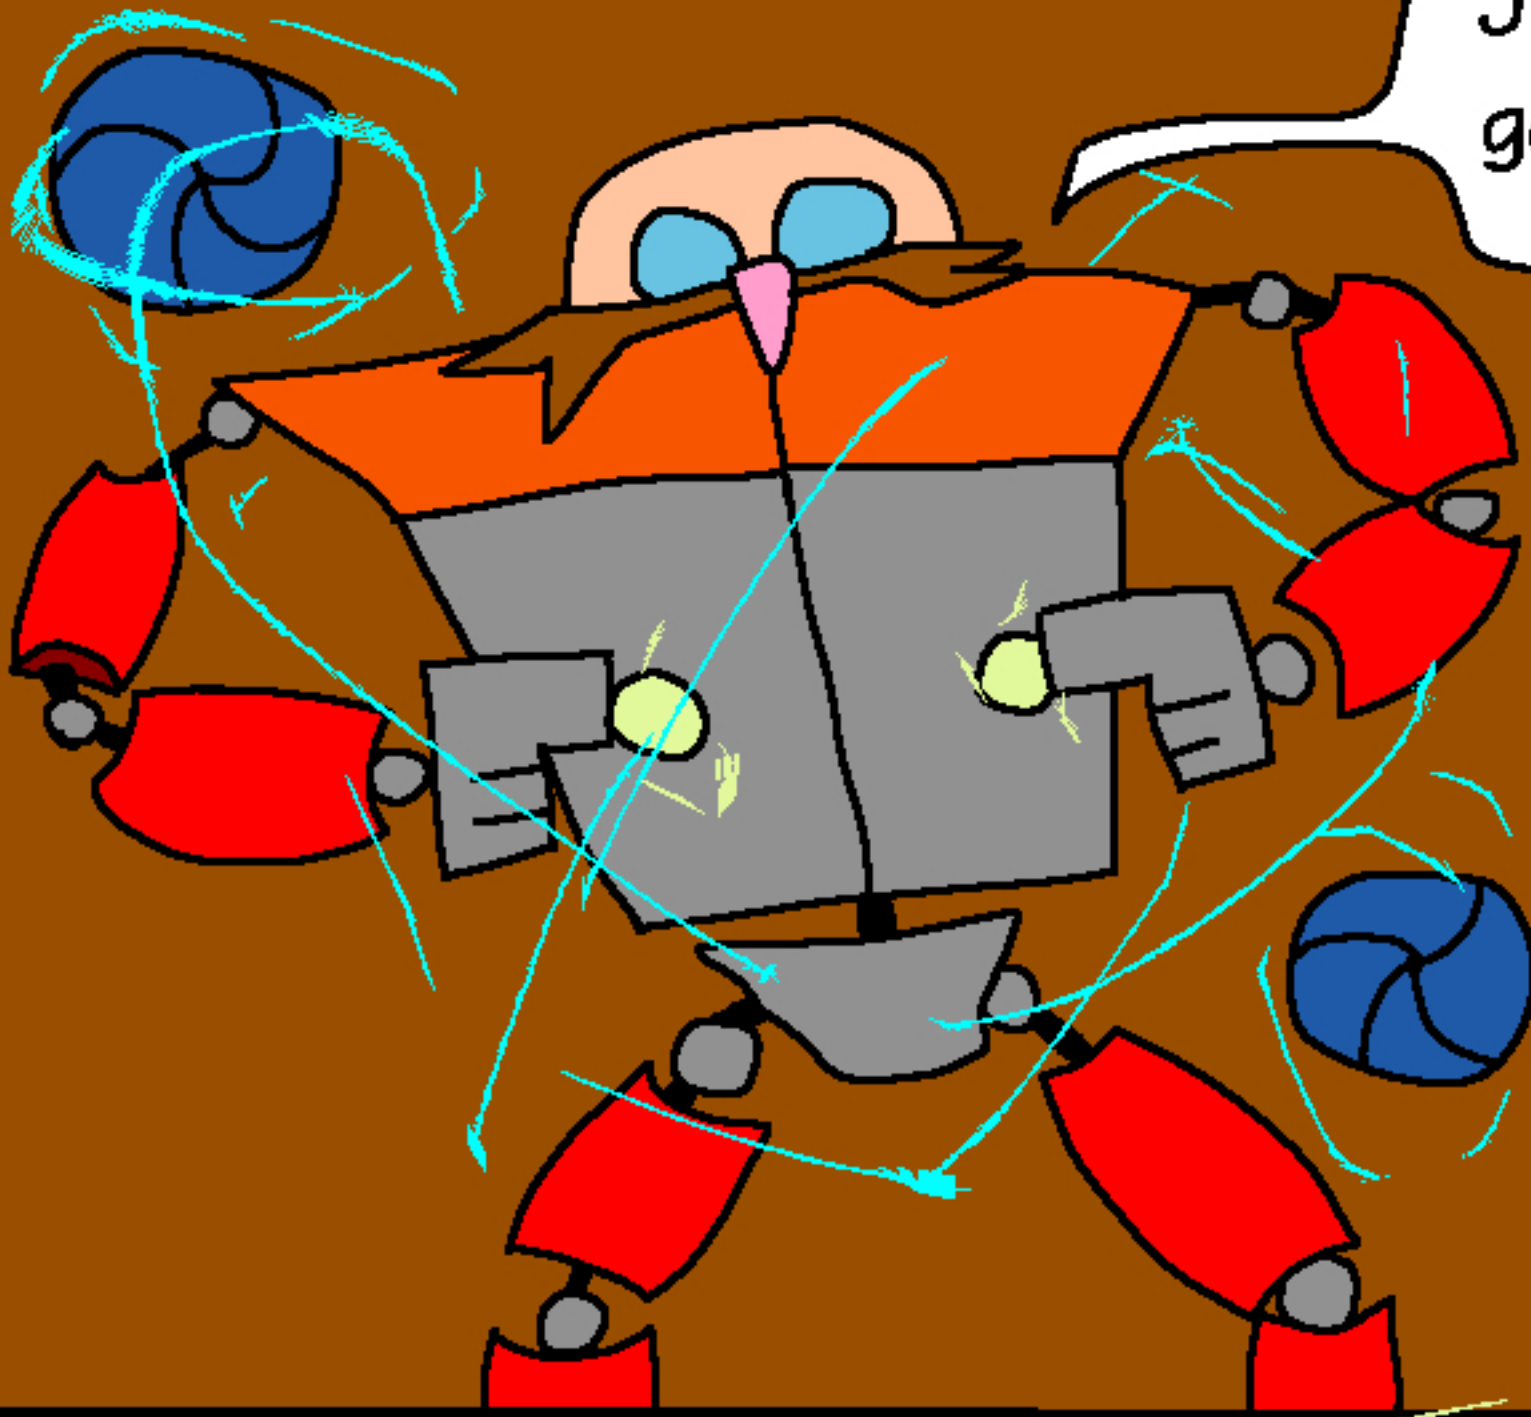

God damn it! I can never get used to your super speed. Yea you rat! just keep spinning all around me!

Ha, your too slow. Getting mad egggy? I bet your brain is all scrambled eggs for breakfast once your all fired up and tired!

Just wait until you get a load of this!

BOOM!

HA!

Now at last, you have been a menace to me for too long now. This will be my final victory. All on the news people will be saying that I have finally defeated Sonic

Sonic? SONIC? Oh no, he must be in danger. I can't hear you Sonic.

Ehh....

Hah, also I forgot, it can't be Sonic after me without his buddy old pal Miles the two tailed mutt. I will make sure I take him down after I'm done with you!

Wait a minute, I hear Eggman! I got to get down there before Sonic gets ambushed by him. Hold on Sonic! I'm on my way down there.

If we don't stop Eggman from operating the cartel who knows what could happen.

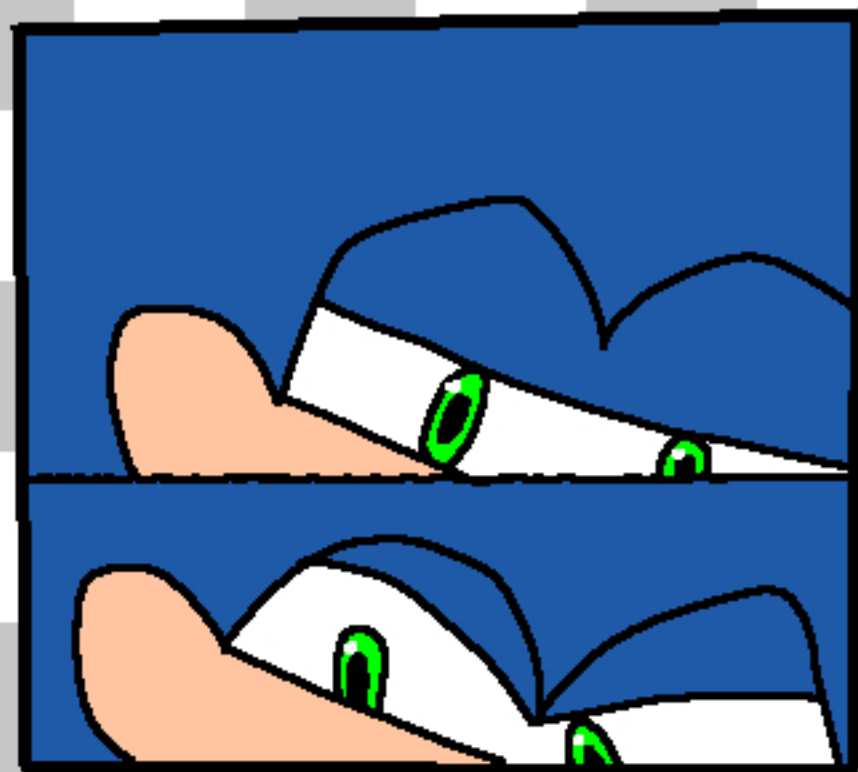

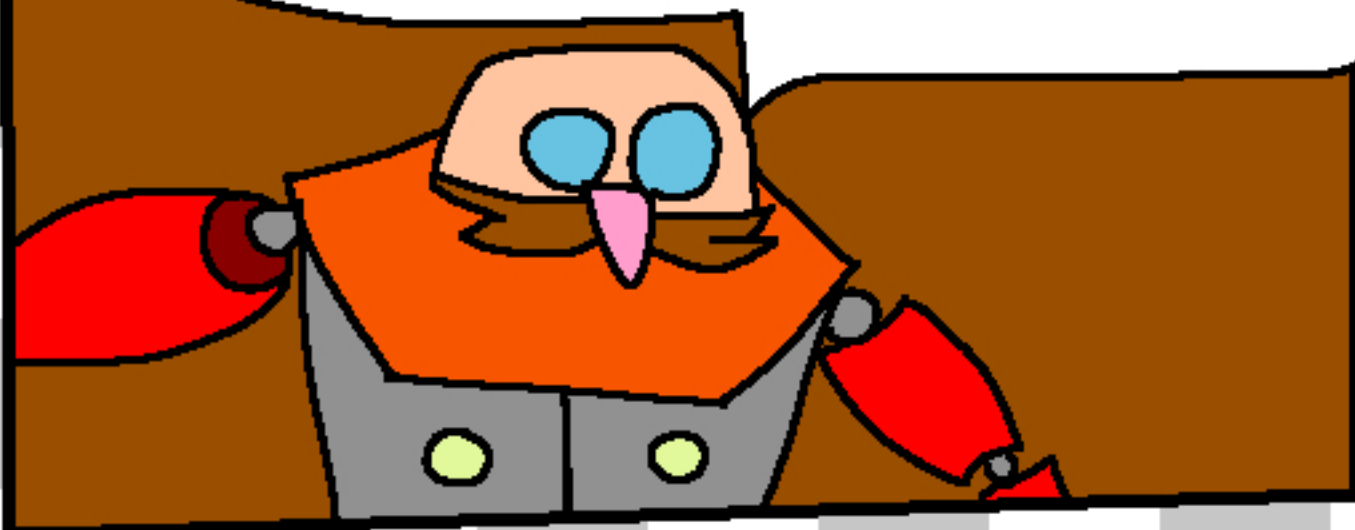

Preparing landing at the back Mountain!

I can use my GPS tracker to that walkie talkie that Sonic has. It looks like this tunnel is this way.

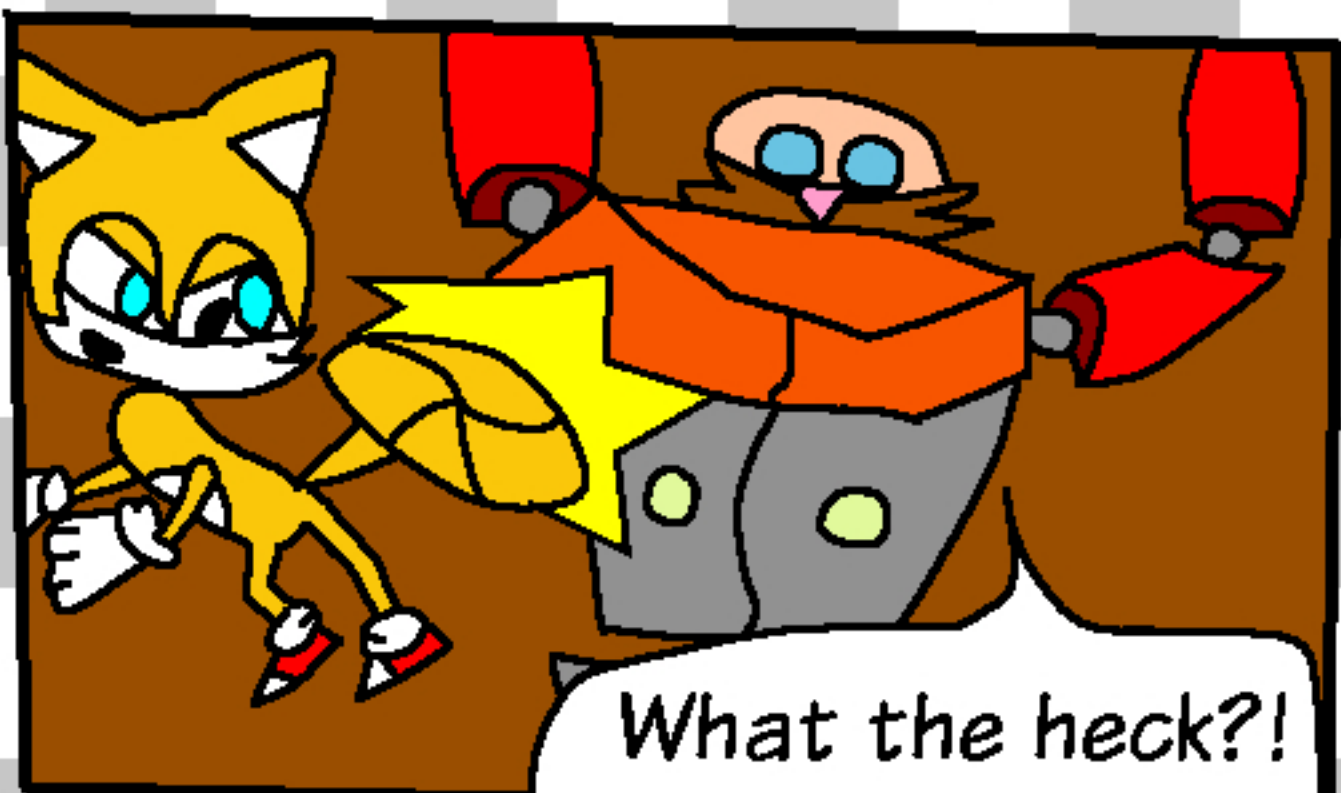

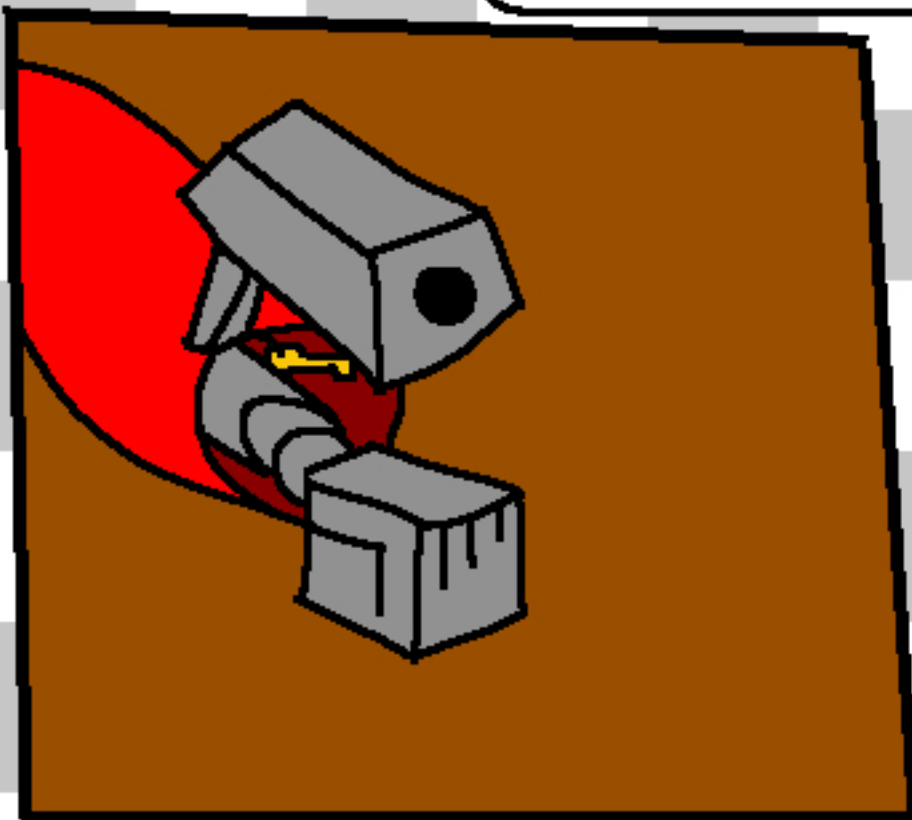

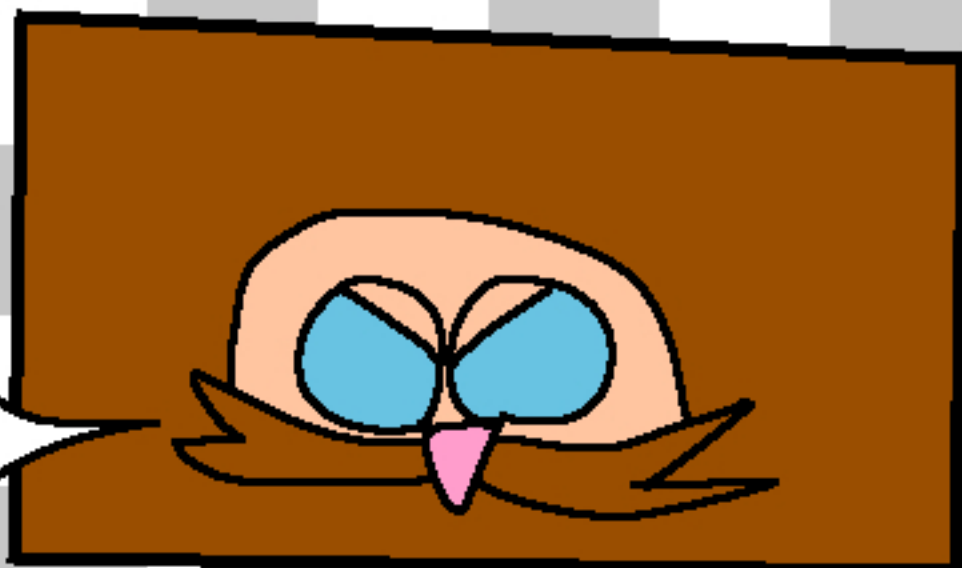

Now Sonic! I will renounce that you do as I command, you will be my slave and I will call you my servant. Your gonna take over the world with me and potray all your little pesky knacks that roam the green lands. Understood?....

NEVER!

Then so beat it!

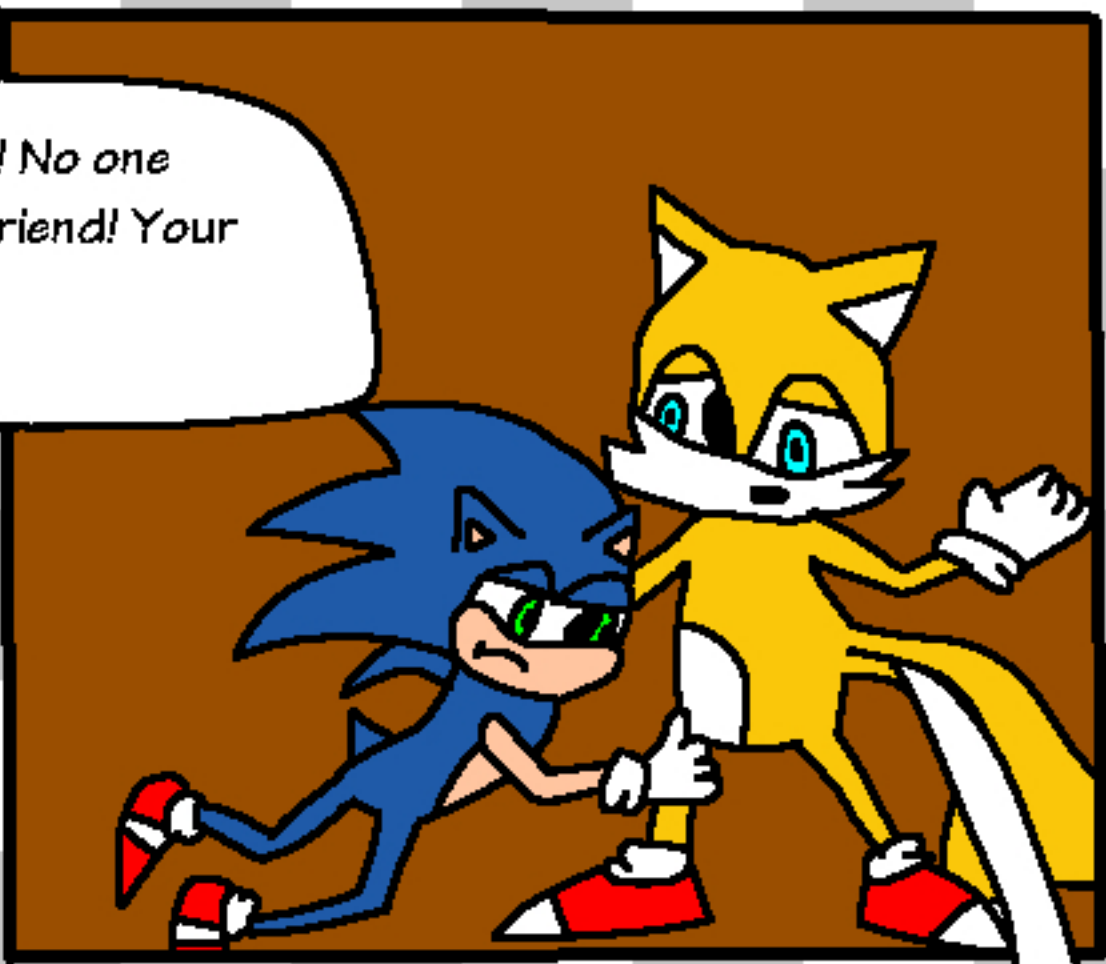

What the heck?!
TAILS?!

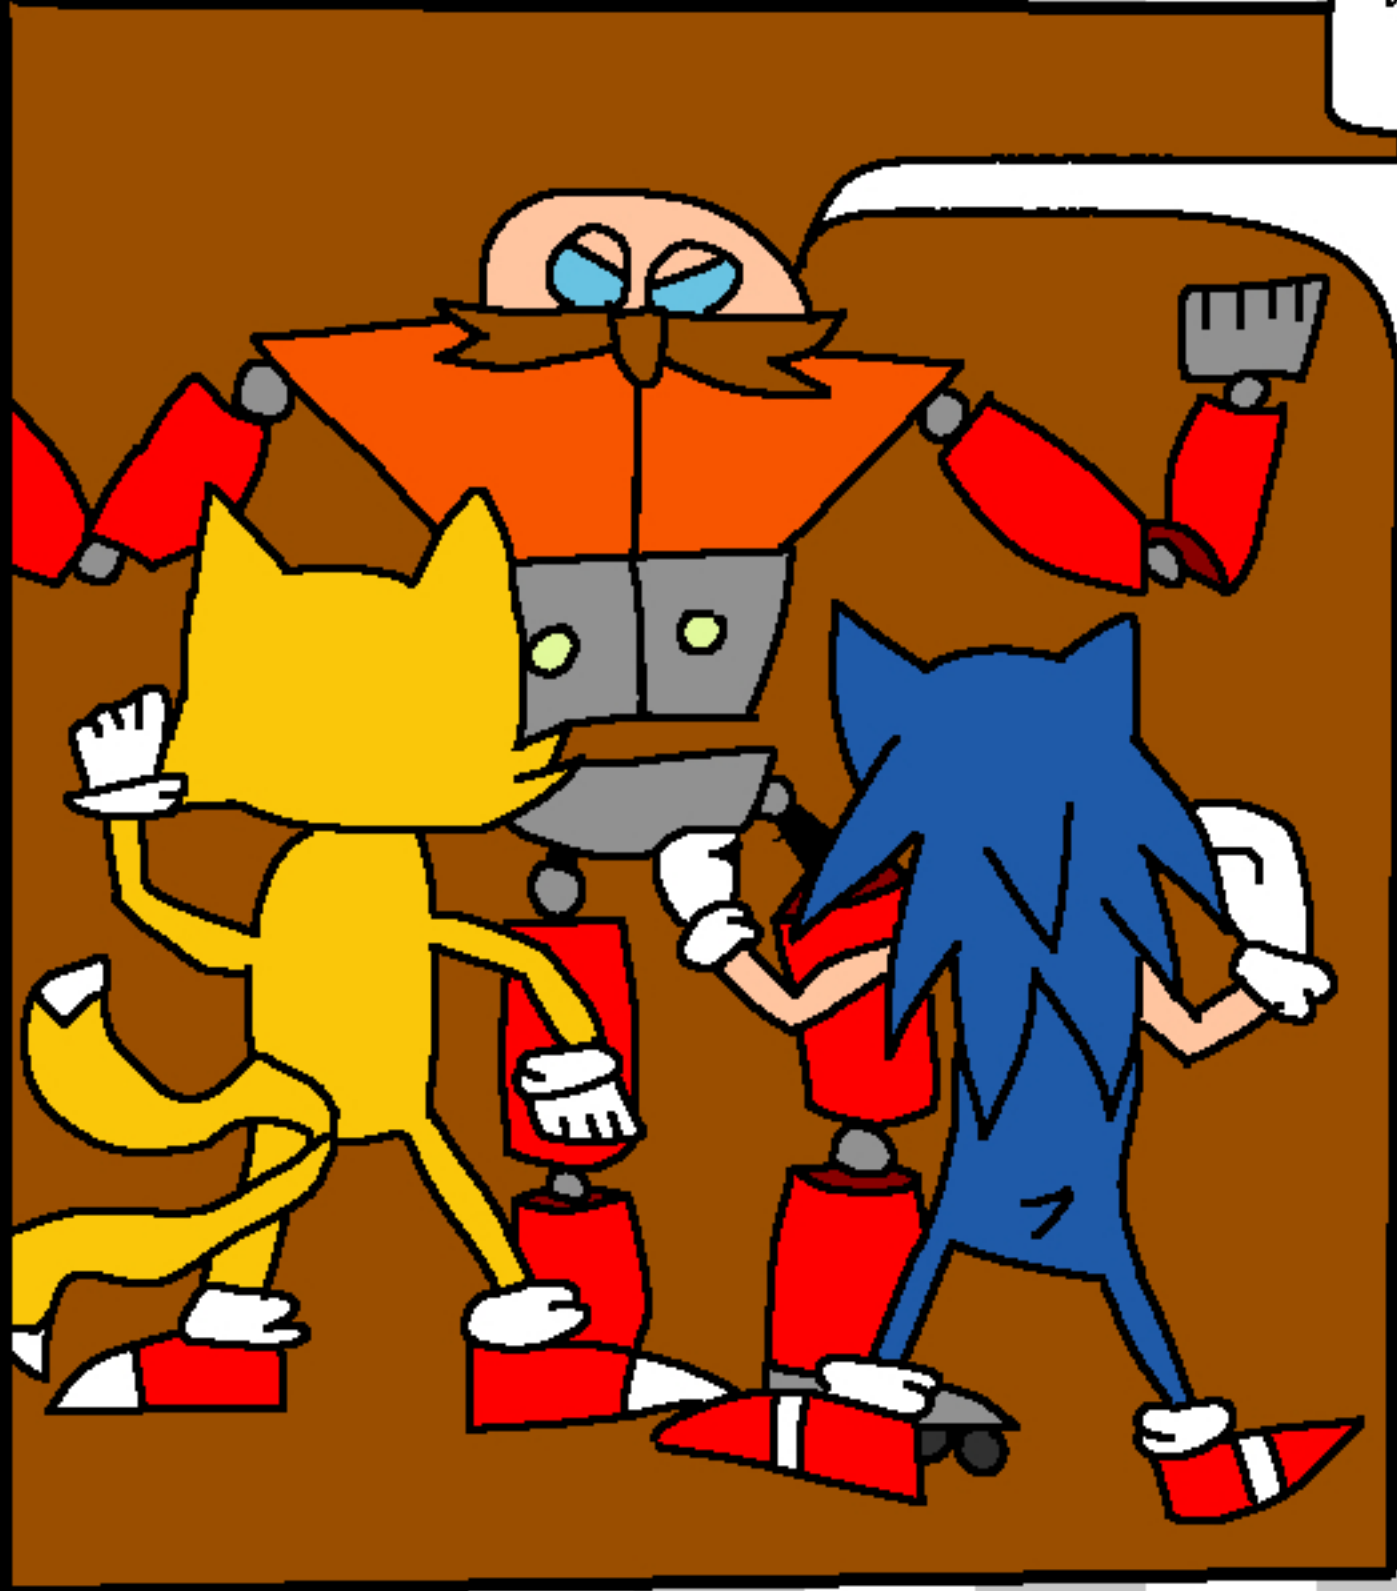

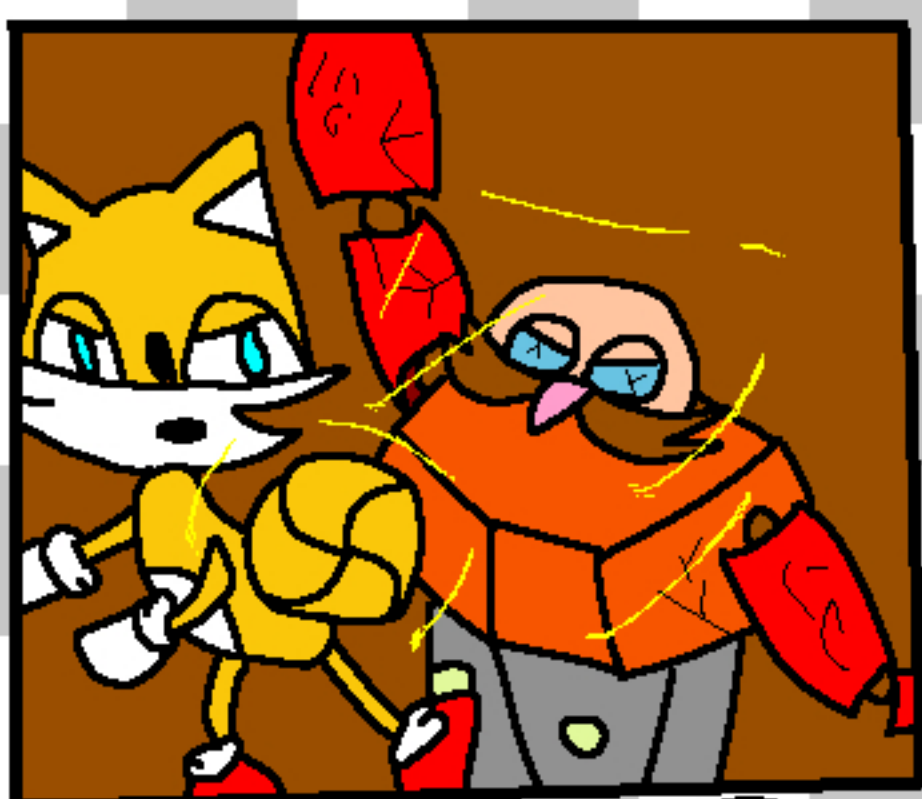

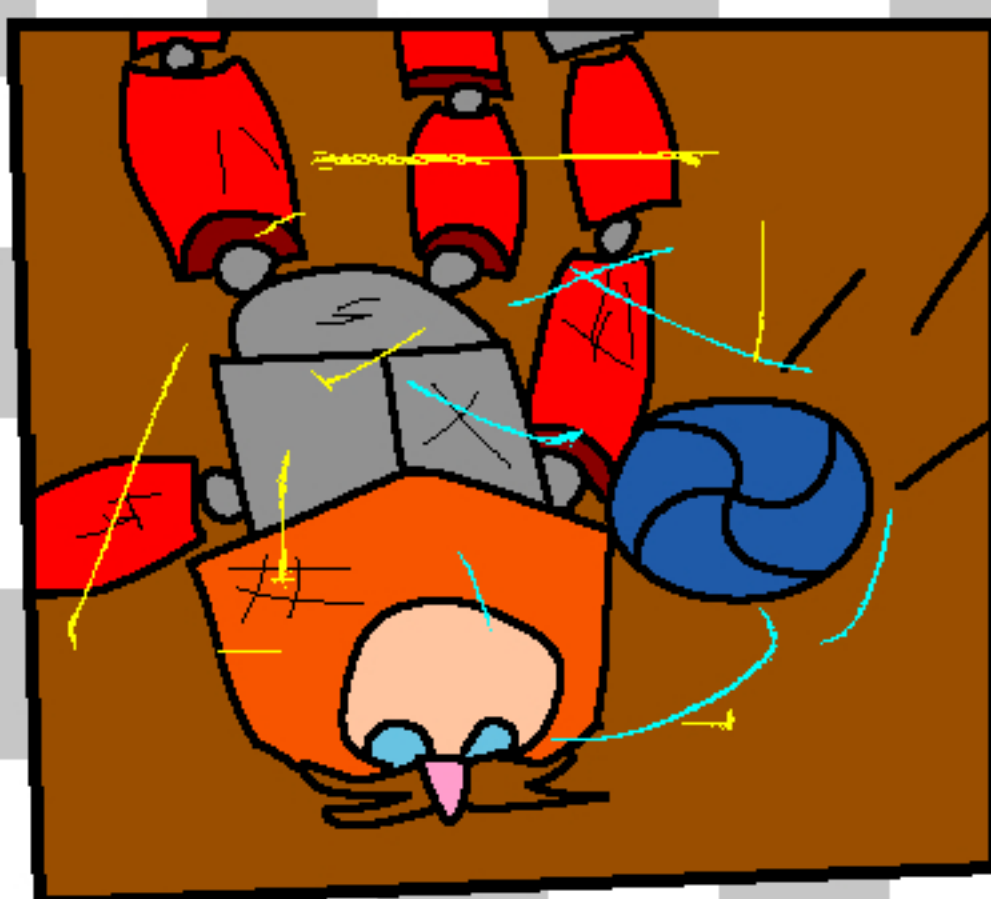

Back off Eggman! No one messes with my friend! Your cartel is over!

I'm sorry Sonic, I should have came in there with you. Let me help you up.

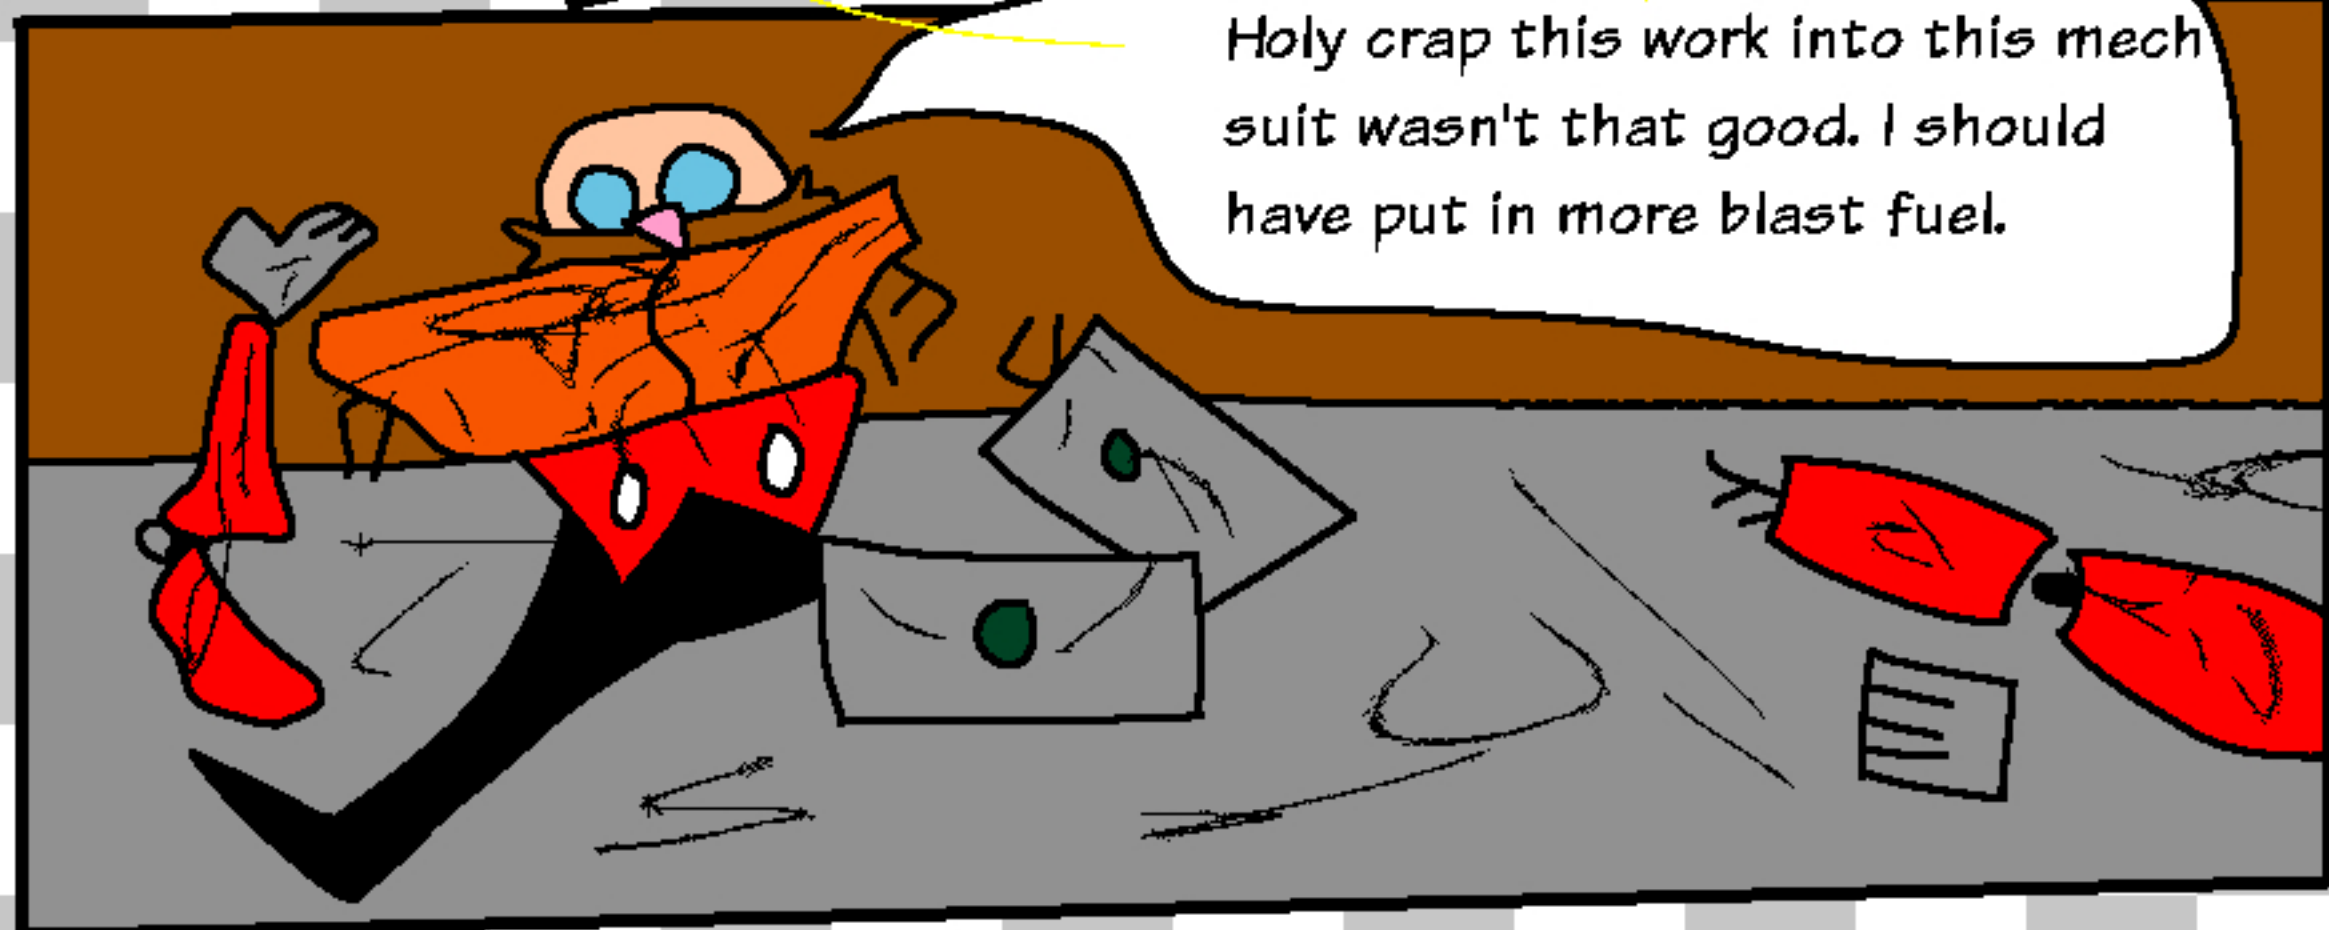

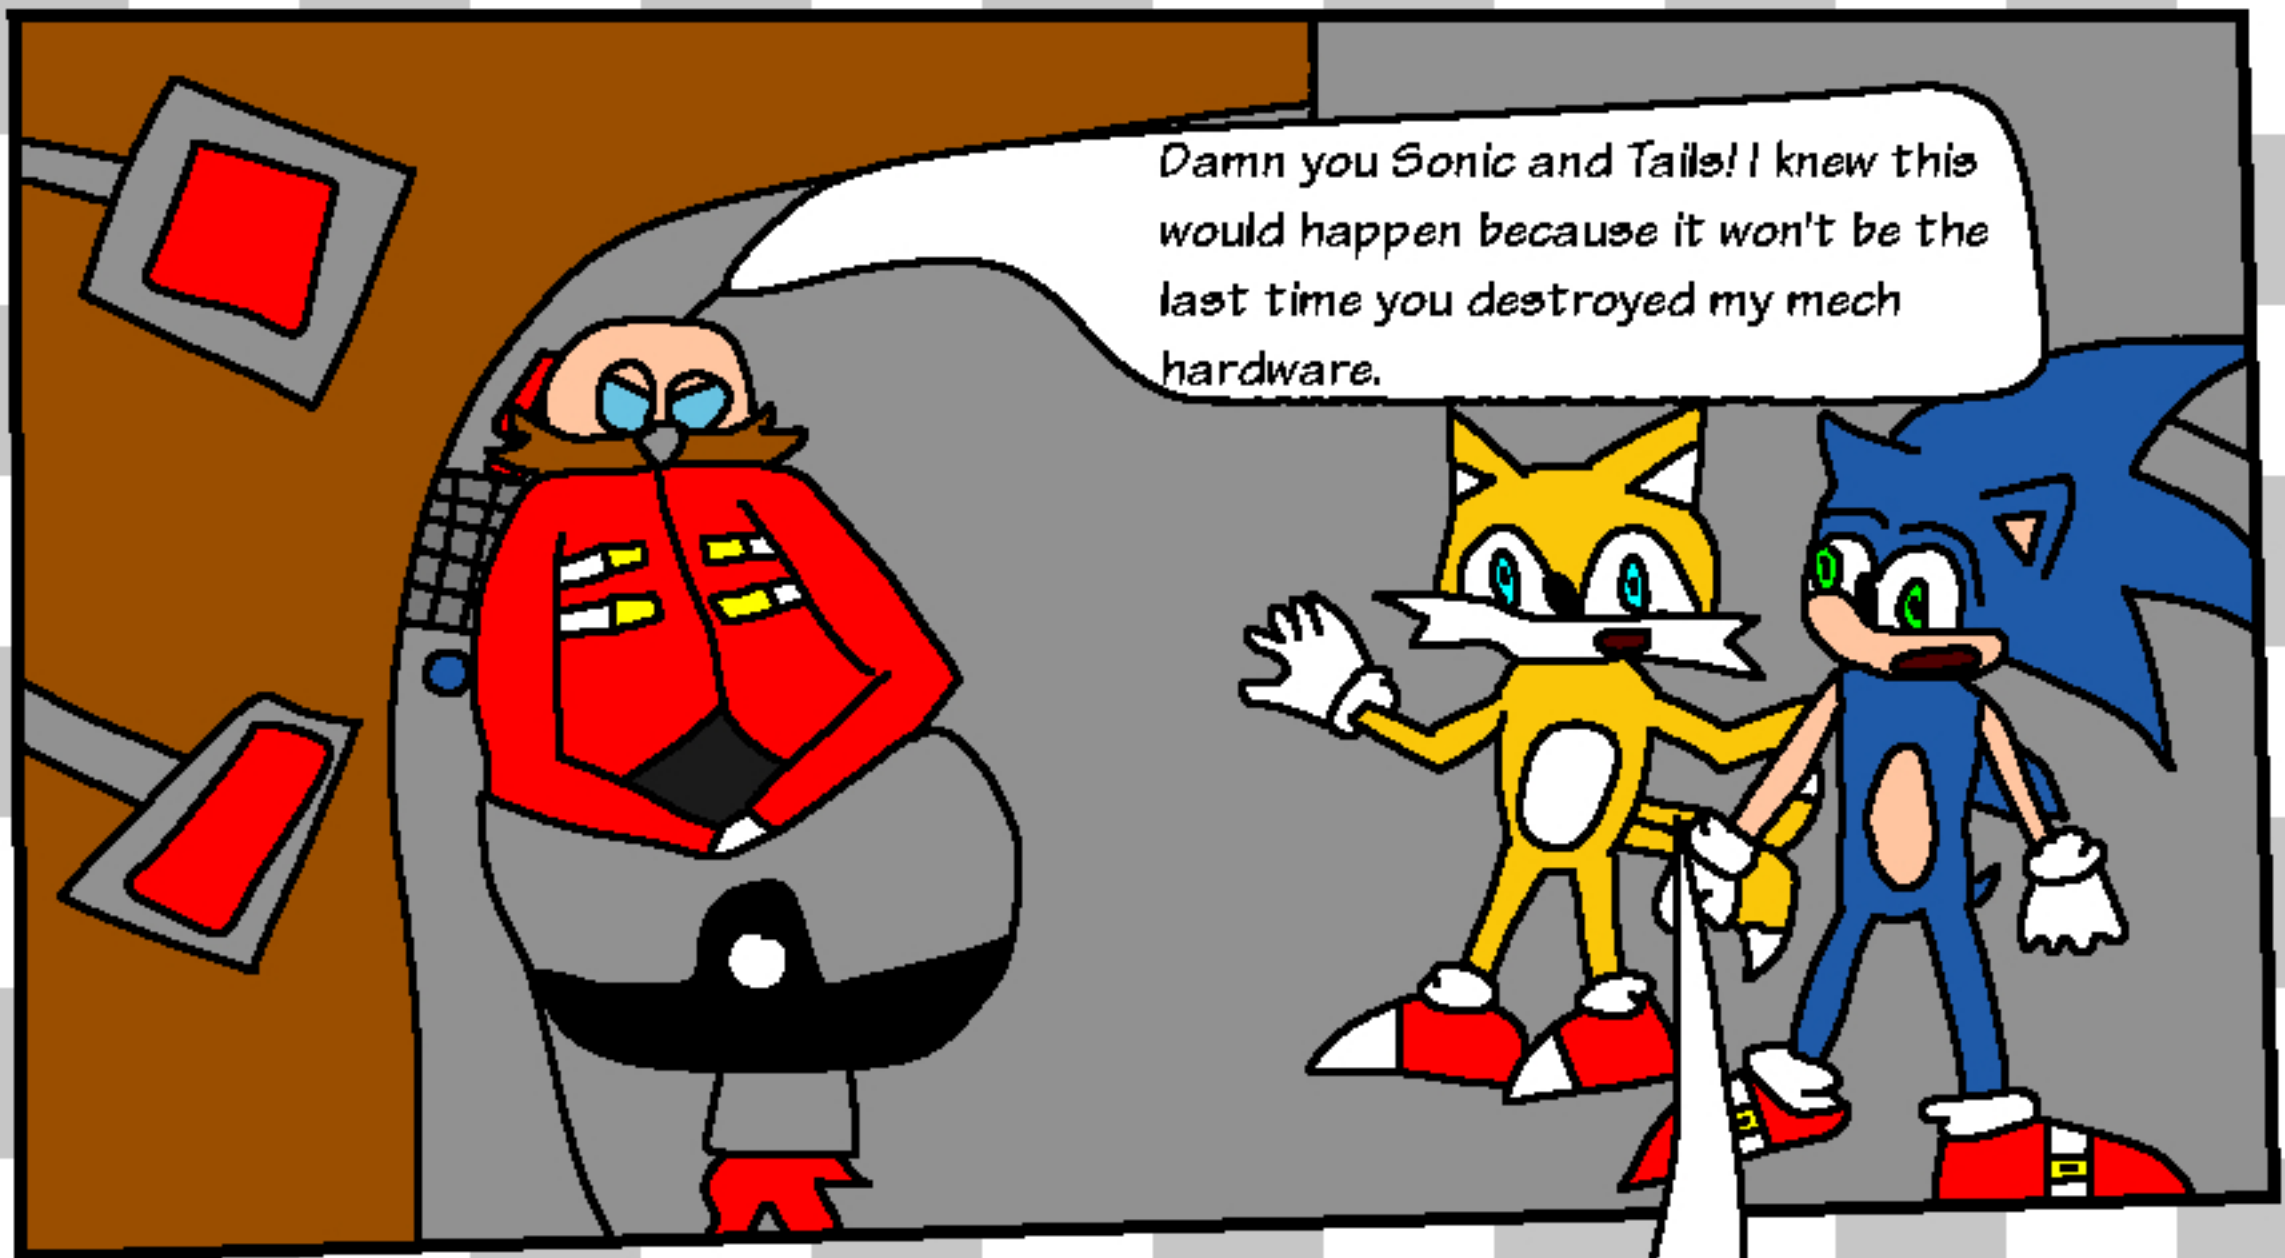

Bah! If it isn't Sonic it has to be Tails! And if it's not Tails I bet Knuckles would be at me as well. I can never tackle Sonic when your dim wits are in the picture. So I'm gonna have to take down two people huh? Well then let me have this get over with right now!

BOOM!

Holy crap this work into this mech suit wasn't that good. I should have put in more blast fuel.

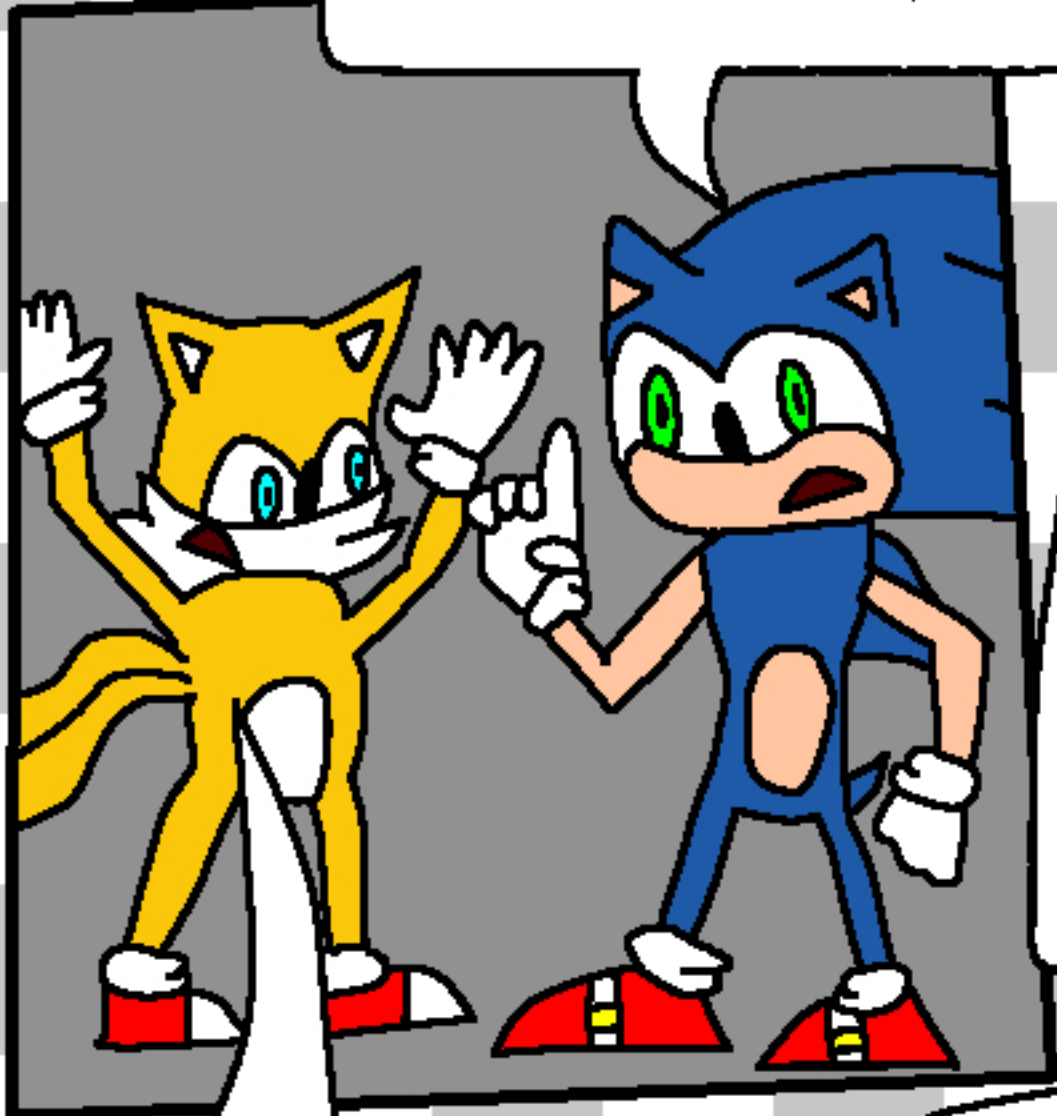

Damn you Sonic and Tails! I knew this would happen because it won't be the last time you destroyed my mech hardware.

No one knows what his next motive is. But we should call the police!

Shoot, I forgot he had an escape plan. He's flying away!

Alright I'm on it Sonic. Let me just type in the numbers to the call.

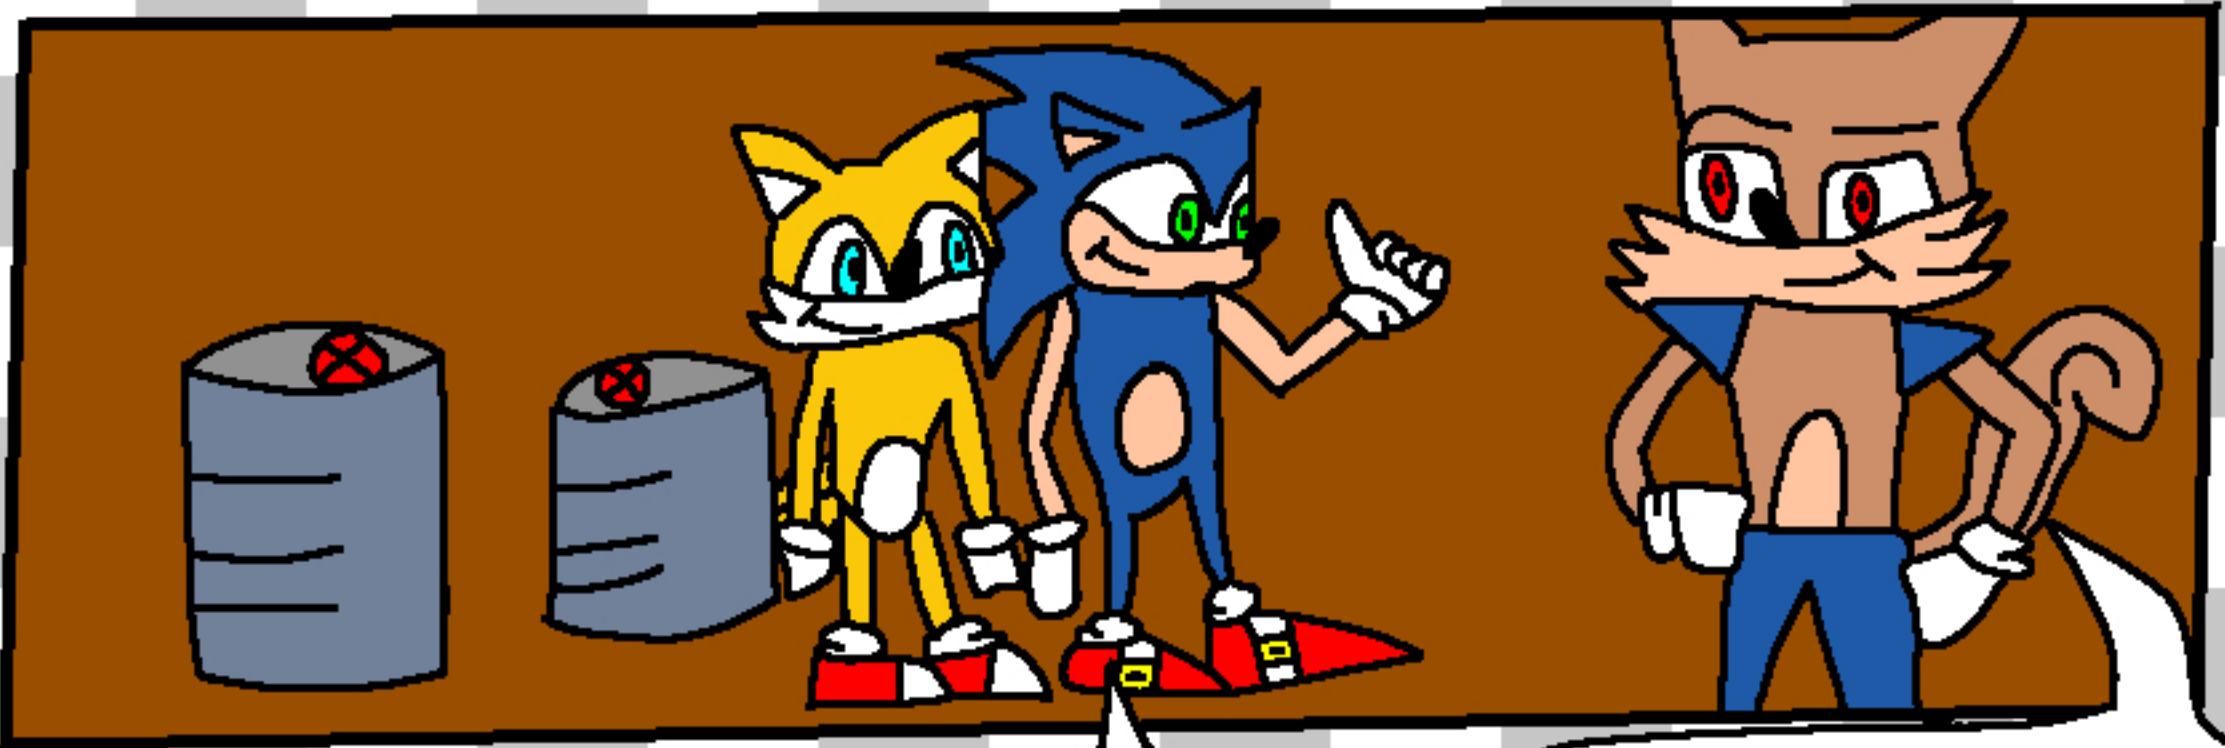

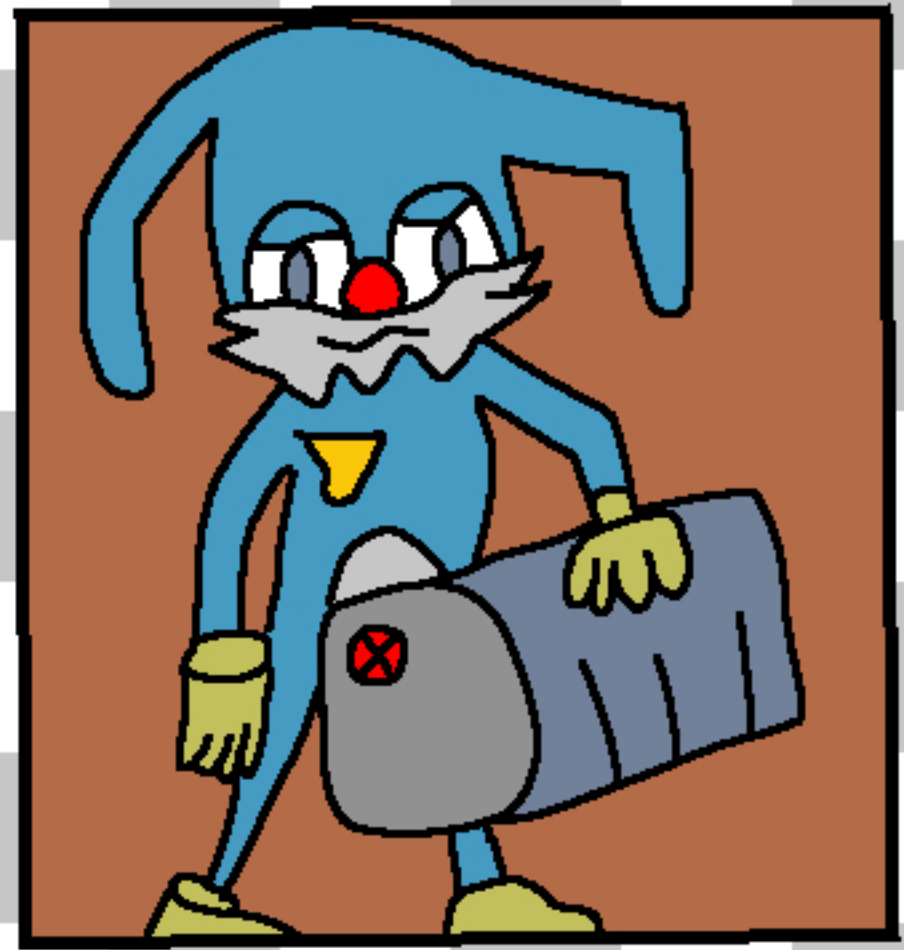

Well at least we defeated him, now it's time we put this cartel to rest! But I wonder what Eggman is gonna do now?

Help this is Tails. We have located the cartel going on in Brownie Rock Zone. Please come ASAP.

You can thank it all to us and my pal Tails. Eggman didn't even stand a chance. He had a pretty crappy mech suit.

Well thanks for the call Master Sonic. We didn't even know such a thing was going on in Brown Rock Zone. Honestly this island is abandoned and a big death trap

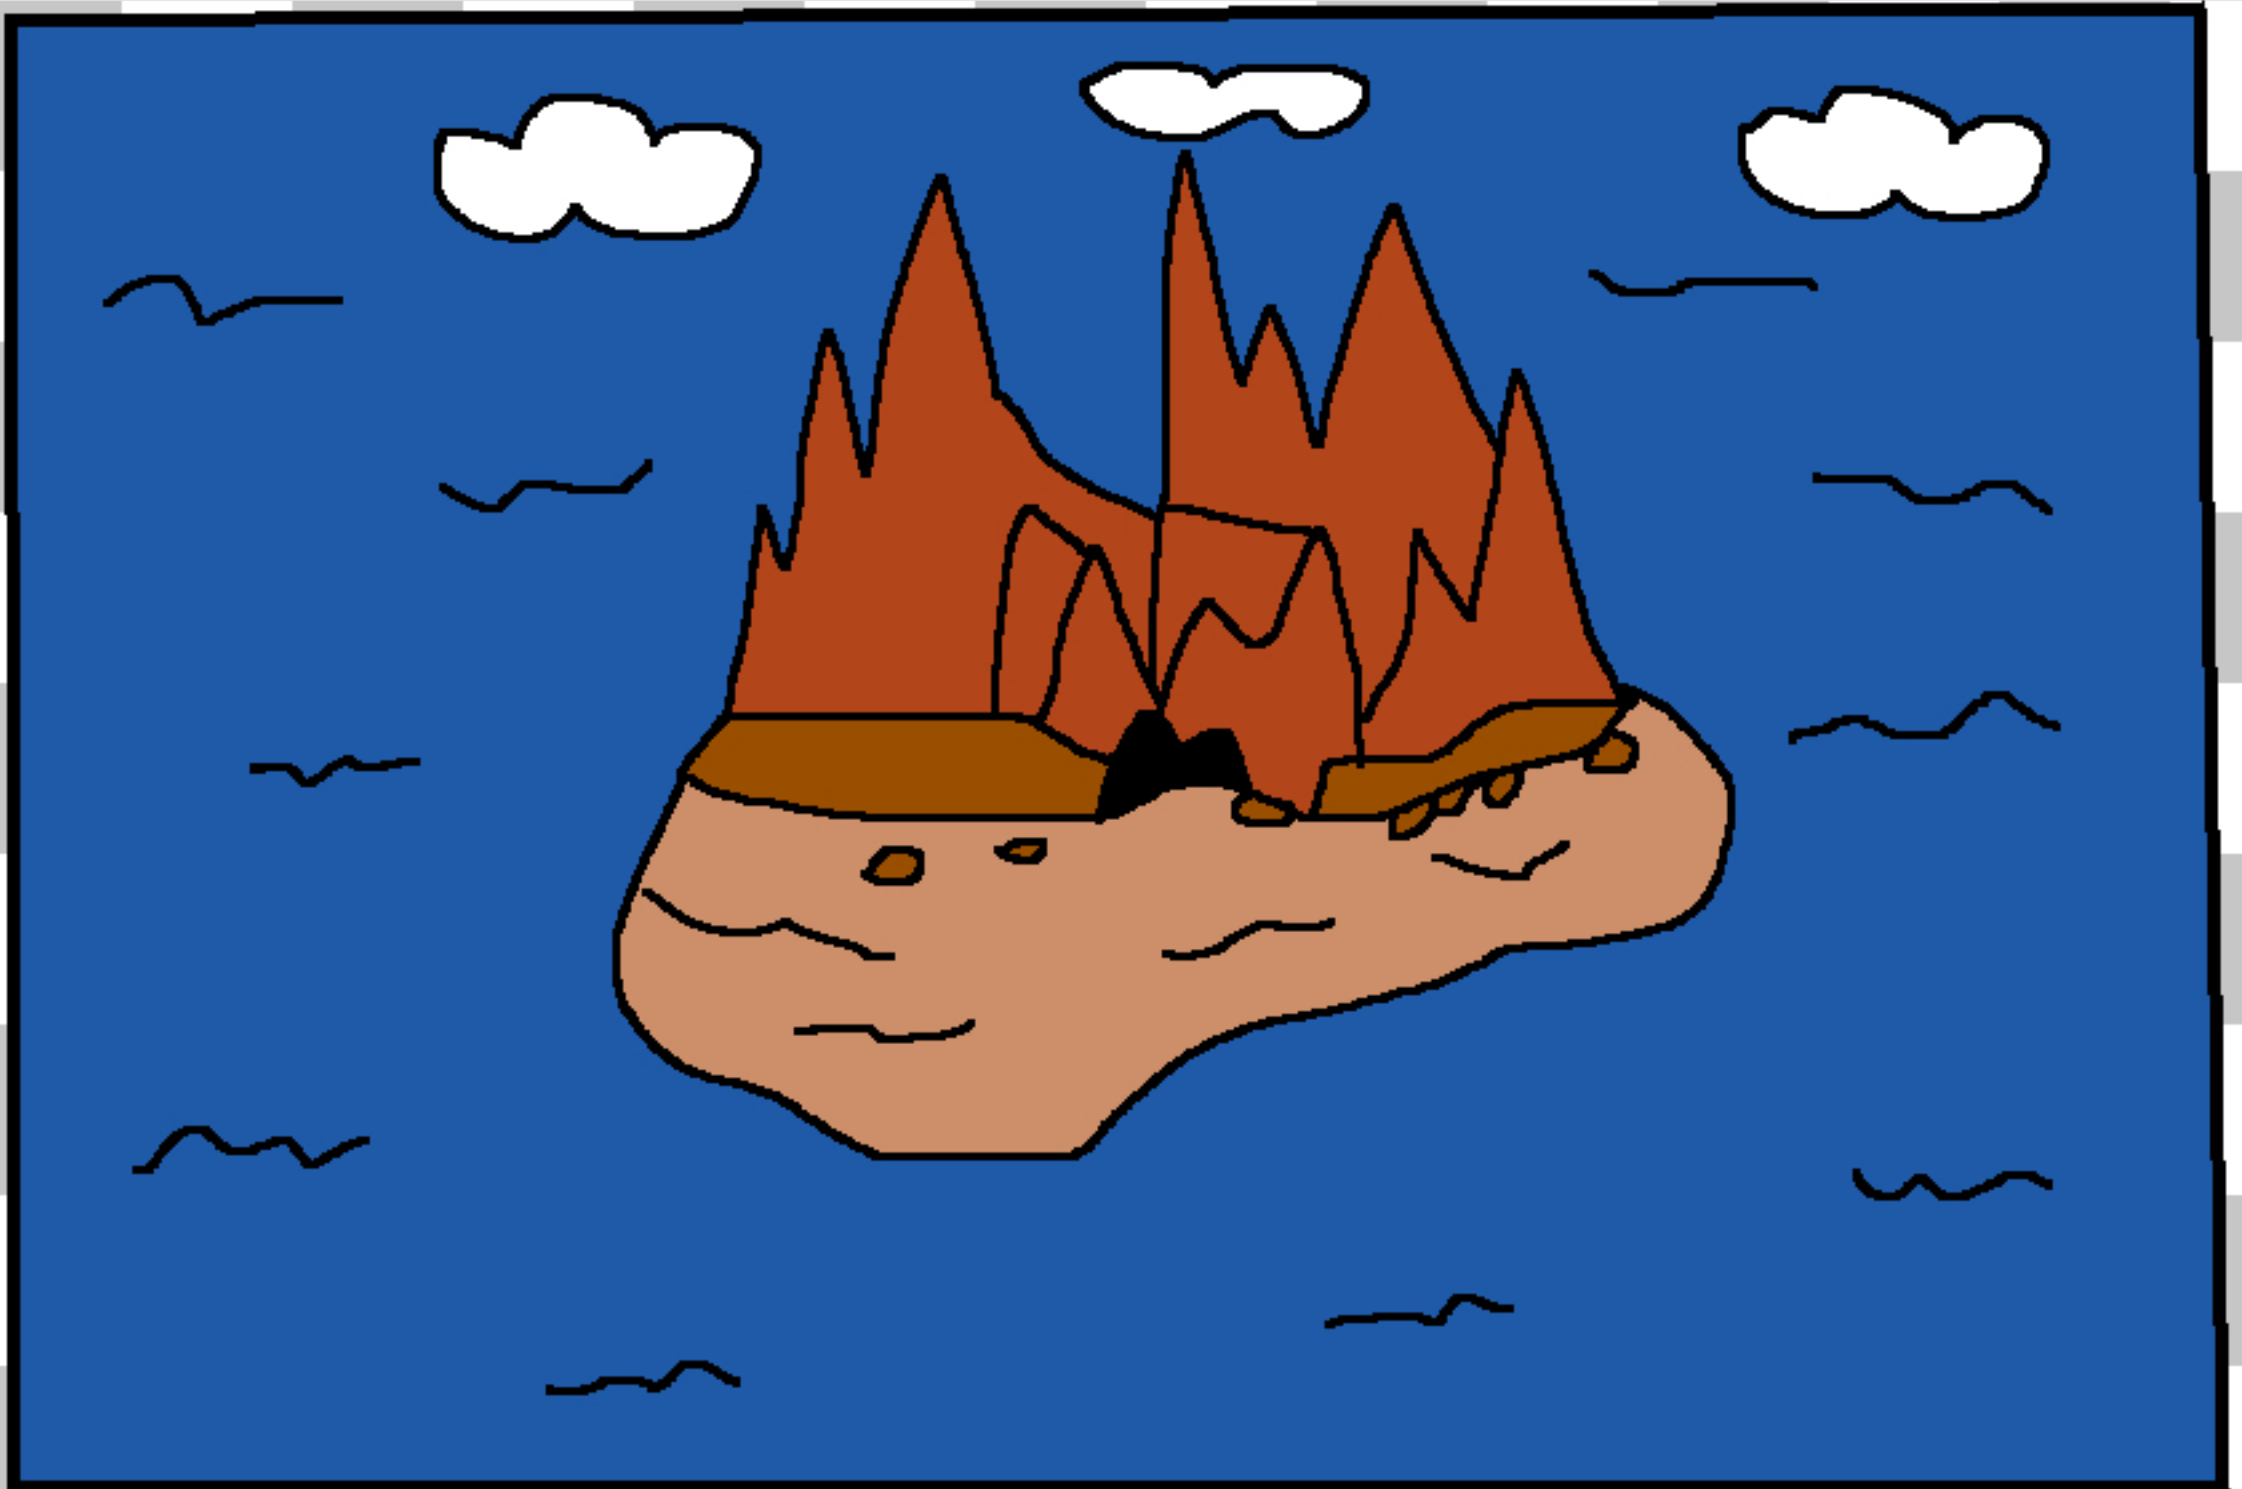

What's this? It seems harmless let's get some one to test it.

Wait, this is just yoke from a chicken egg.

EGG YOKE?!

Damit that Eggman tricked us this whole time! Look at the letter, this little mad dr. was just trying to buy some time to to execute a worseer plan!

And so, Sonic and his pal Tails had successfully stopped Eggman's cartel. However, it seems that Eggman lead a note saying that his plan was not over and it was simply a tactic to buy time since the egg yoke was a giant decoy.
